

LIQUOR CASES IN POLICE COURT

Storekeeper Charged With Illegal Sale and Keeping Gaming Apparatus

House of Correction Sentence for Young Man Charged With Vagrancy

Manuel A. Jardin, a storekeeper, appeared in the police court this morning charged with illegal sale of liquor and keeping gaming apparatus on his premises. A continuance to Jan. 27 was granted at his request, and he was held in $300 on the liquor charge.
His personal recognizance for $100 was accepted by the court on the alleged possession of gaming implements.

Auto Law Violation Costs D. Rangos was charged with violation of the ordinance governing motor vehicles. It was testified by Capt. Connors that Rangos was driving a motor truck on Market street,
Jan. 6, at 5:30 p. m., without a headlight. The captain stated that he stopped Rangos after the latter had narrowly escaped collision with another machine. Rangos, he testified, showed indifference when questioned as to the reason for his failure to have his truck properly lighted, giving the explanation that the light was broken.
Rangos, who is unacquainted with English, contradicted the charge through an interpreter. He contended that Captain Connors had stopped him because he did not blow his horn. He denied that anything had been said in reference to the lack of a headlight, although he admitted that no light was burning.

The court found him guilty, and imposed a fine of $15. Rangos appeared and was held in the sum of $200.

House of Correction
Four months in the house of correction at Cambridge was the sentence imposed today in the police court upon Albert A. Dion, charged with vagrancy.
He testified that Captain Brogan had testified that Dion admitted having done no work since October 23. He had, according to the captain's testimony, been, by his own admission, making from five to ten dollars a day playing pool for slakes. Dion pleaded guilty to the charge preferred.

Liquor Case Continued
The case of John Kerilas, charged with illegally keeping liquor, was continued to January 23, today in the local police court. The continuance was granted in view of the inability of the liquor law enforcement officers who made the arrest to be present.

High Cost of Living Gets Another Jolt

Here is a Way of Overcoming the Stress of the Present Day.

If you are anxious to overcome the high cost of living in a legitimate, effective way, here is an opportunity to start right. Act quickly, for the chance is a limited one and you must grasp it. To allow it to pass unnoticed will be a lost opportunity that you will regret.

Tonight, between the hours of 7 and 9, is the time, THE MERRIMACK CLOTHING COMPANY, "across from city hall," is the place. The management has arranged a series of Friday Night Specials, that will go on sale tonight between 7 and 9 o'clock, that will surely appeal to all shrewd buyers of Lowell and suburbs. Look the prices over, then consider the standard of merchandise that has helped to make THE MERRIMACK CLOTH-ING COMPANY the leading concern of its class in the city, and if you don't come to the conclusion that these offers are real bargains that will tend to overcome the high cost of living, then we'll say there is something wrong. We feel confident, however, that you will agree with us that the following prices quoted are the biggest and best buys offered in Lowell
in a long time:

Men's Suits that sold formerly at $45 will go at $25; Men's $50 Overcoats at $30; Men's $40 Hats at $20; Boys' suits at $10; Boys' $15 Suits at $8;
Boys' $12.50 Suits at $7.50; Boys'
Waistcoats formerly at $2.50 at 50 cents; Boys' 40 cent Stockings at 25 cents; Ladies' All Wool and Sport Hose at $1.50; Silk Petticoats that sold for $2.50, will go at 15. Space does not permit listing any more.

Remember that these are not shop-worn or seconds. THE MERRIMACK CLOTHING COMPANY'S reputation for square dealing with the public could not permit it. They are all goods of high standard and the same guarantee goes with them as with everything that is sold over the counters.
And remember also that this sale is for tonight only, between the hours of 7 and 9.

8 KILLED NEAR DUBLIN, IRELAND

Seven Constables and One Civilian Shot to Death in Engagements Yesterday

Six Officers Met Death When Their Motor Car Ran Into An Ambuscade

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—Eight men, seven of whom were constables, were shot and killed in engagements with Sinn Feiners near this city yesterday. Six of the officers met death when their motor car ran into an ambuscade, while the body of another was found near the barracks of his squad yesterday morning. The civilian was shot in cold blood by several men who entered his home.

Announcement has been made that in future all motor cars carrying constables and, therefore likely to be attacked, will carry members of the Sinn Fein as hostages. This plan has been in operation near Cork where martial law is in force and has, it is said, acted as a preventive of attacks on parties of constables. Recourse to the hostage system here where martial law has not been declared, caused general surprise.

Two three-story houses in Cork were destroyed by British army engineers yesterday as an act of official reprisal for an attack made on crown forces in their neighborhood. The houses were destroyed by fire.

REGISTRY AND EMPLOYMENT BUREAU
A labor registry and employment bureau is to be opened by the American Legion under the immediate direction of Robert Rutledge, recently elected post adjutant.

The bureau is organizing a labor bureau has hung in the balance for some time past awaiting the initiative of any of the officers of the legion.
It is Adjutant Rutledge's plan to have a complete registry of the legion members and the kind of work for which they are best fitted, so that those engaged in any kind may be informed immediately just where they may obtain their men. It is his belief that, even though he may not be able to place a great many applicants, because of present conditions, the labor registry will be of great service to club members and to the employers of the city.

SPECIAL PRIZE DRILL
Some time soon a squad of G.A.R. veterans of the Lowell posts and a squad of world war veterans, members of the local legion posts will engage in a special prize drill. The G.A.R.
veterans will use the old Springfield rifles, model of 1860, while the new United States army rifles, the date and model of which will be open to the public and the G.A.R. men are quite sure that they will show more class than their opponents.
The arrangements, the date and the men to make up the squads have not been made, but it is almost certain that the drill will be held in Legion hall.

HARDING ON WAY TO THE SOUTH

President-Elect Journeying to

Vacation

Troubles Packed in a Kit Bag
to Be Locked for at Least Two Weeks

ON BOARD PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING'S TRAIN, Jan. 21.—With his troubles packed in a kit bag that he intends to keep tightly locked for at least two weeks, President-elect Harding turned his thoughts to golf sticks and fishing rods today as he journeyed southward for a vacation in Florida.

The association of national tax reforms, the choice of a cabinet and all the other topics that have been keeping long hours with him during the last six weeks in Marion, are to be put as far away from his mind as possible, until he has had a good rest. His Marion conferences frequently have kept him busy from early morning until late at night, and the strain and fatigue are evident.

LEGION RELIEF COMMITTEE
On Monday evening at 9 o'clock the relief committee of the American Legion will hold a meeting in Legion headquarters. Routine business will be taken up, but the important matter to be discussed will be the claims for assistance entered with the Legion secretary during the past few weeks. All those who have applied for financial or other assistance from the Legion or who intend to do so, should be present at this meeting.

The High Price of Contentment
Nothing costs more in this world than contentment because we have to pay for it in the most precious coin. We have to pay for it in self-denial, self-disci-

contentment easy to pay.

TO TEST "HOME BREW" RULING

Constitutionality of Recent Construction of Volstead Act Attacked

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—A suit to test the constitutionality of the recent construction of the Volstead act prohibiting the manufacture of home brew, was on file today, in federal court, a petition by David D.
Stansbury, an attorney, asserting that the government cannot collect both a revenue tax on home made liquors and assess a fine for violation of a law forbidding their manufacture.

More than 600 Chicago saloon-keepers have been assessed both the fine and the tax, according to Mr.
Stansbury, on charges of selling beer containing more than the legal percentage of alcohol.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR COMING

Hon. Alvan T. Fuller Will Be Guest at Auto Show
This Evening

Lieut. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller will be the guest at the Lowell Auto show in the Casino this evening. On behalf of the state he will be present to pay his respects to the Lowell automobile dealers in staging such an affair.

Arriving in this city between 6 and 7 o'clock he will be met by a delegation at the depot and taken from there to the York club, where he will be the guest of Mayor Perry D. Thompson at dinner. Following this, the lieutenant governor will be accompanied by Mayor Thompson and other members of the local government to the Casino to view the program. It is likely that Lieut. Gov. Fuller will make a short address and what few remarks he will make will be greatly appreciated by the auto dealers present, for Mr. Fuller is actively engaged in the automobile business himself, being president of the Packard Motor Car company.

Tomorrow night the show will be closed, and for that reason a very large crowd is expected tonight. Orchestral entertainment will be provided throughout the evening and special vocal selections will be rendered by Miss Sadie Sheehan, Miss Alice
Dion, "Barney" Sheehan, and Anthony
Schwartz, popular singers of this city.
Fully 3000 people visited the show last night inspecting the complete line of pleasure and business vehicles on display, and from reports gathered from sales agents this morning some sales were made and many prospects are in view. The number visiting the show on the preceding night was placed at 2500, with an equally good number of sales and prospects.

Tomorrow the show will be open all day in an endeavor to make one grand wind-up before the close in the evening. Several New England distributing agents of the various auto concerns, expected earlier in the week will be on hand this evening.

Quiet reigned at the Casino this morning, the only ones present being dealers or sales agents, preparing their booths for the opening of the show in the afternoon. After each session of the show all cars on display are wiped down and polished.

WAR VETERANS' GRAVES

Complaints That Graves Have Been Neglected, Investigated by Mayor

Accompanied by representatives of the Spanish War Veterans and the American Legion organizations of this city, Mayor Thompson made a tour of the various veterans' graves in the afternoon to investigate alleged complaints that the graves of war veterans have been unduly neglected during the past five years.

It is understood that several complaints have been made at the American Legion headquarters in Dutton street to the effect that graves of veterans of all wars in cemeteries of this city have not been given proper care.

Commander James J. Powers, of the legion made a tour recently of all the cemeteries and he declares that he found many veterans' graves in deplorable condition. During 1920, he says, the city appropriated $500 for the care of such graves and at the present time out of that sum there is $143 remaining.

He claims that his investigation of conditions in the Highlands, where the majority of the graves are located, led him to believe either that the graves have been neglected or that a much larger appropriation should have been made for their care.

In mentioning some instances of neglect the commander stated that on many war veterans' graves the head-stones have been set at an angle or have been knocked over, or the graves are without any. Standards placed on veterans' graves as marks of identification he declares, have been misplaced in some instances.

Twenty-eight headstones provided by the government for war veterans' graves have not yet been placed, he claims.

Rob Safe As Hens Cackle Warning
BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Although hens cackled a warning and geese squawked a protest against being disturbed, crackmen entered the New England Live Poultry Co.'s place of business in the North End during the night, opened the safe and escaped with several hundred dollars.
The fowl are confined in cages on all sides of the store. The din that they raised apparently caused the intruders to hurry their departure as several of their tools were left behind.

HONOR HERO CHAPLAINS

Hearing On Petition for Tablet in Memory of Yankee Division Chaplains

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 27.—A public hearing was held today on the petition of Rep. Roland D. Sawyer of Ware for the placing in the state house of a bronze tablet in memory of the late Rev. Fr. John B. DeValles and the Rev. Walter S. Danker, chaplains of the 68th (Yankee) Division.

Rep. Sawyer told the committee that as a clergyman he was particularly interested in obtaining proper recognition and commemoration of the supreme sacrifice made by his fellow-clergyman.

"From their first landing in France," he said, "they were in the service together, Danker as a regular chaplain, and Fr. DeValles as a Knight of Columbus chaplain. When Chaplain Danker was killed in action, Fr. DeValles took his place, and was killed. He was buried in France, but his body was not found until it was finally brought home only to die in a New Bedford hospital."

"As a clergyman, I can sense the tremendous historic importance of the service of these two chaplains. In all our three hundred years of history, I know of nothing in the religious life of Massachusetts so beautiful, so holy, so inspiring to patriotism and to religious devotion as the example of these two men."

"Lately forgetful of themselves, rising above the petty things, these two spirits administered on our behalf and in our stead to our boys at the front. Their services are conspicuous and Massachusetts may with propriety be considered forgetful of her debt to them."

LOST VOICE

HOARSENESS, HARD, DRY COUGH, CONGESTION

The open winter with spasmodic changes of temperature has made people very careless in dress and have exposed themselves to colds of winter weather, with the result that many have developed a form of cold in the throat and chest and loss of voice. This form of cold, if neglected, will soon cause soreness in the lungs which is apt to result in pneumonia or even death. This ailment is sometimes without cough or if cough, it is a dry one. SISTER MARY'S COMPOUND will soothe and relieve the hoarseness, congestion and hard, dry cough in 24 hours or less. It will also be taken at least twice before retiring.

No end-liver oil, NO alcohol or narcotics. Children do not have to be urged to take Sister Mary's Compound.

SISTER MARY'S COMPOUND IS BEING DEMONSTRATED AT GREEN'S DRUG STORE, SPRINGMACK SQUARE. ALL SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVES will be here EVERY day to meet ALL who wish to know the benefits to be derived from the use of Sister Mary's Compound for CROUP, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS, CONGESTION, THROAT, INFLUENZA, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE LUNGS, LIVER, AND BLOOD PURIFIER AND BODY BUILDING.

them if she does not properly and fittingly commemorate their service. "When their boys were cold and hungry, these chaplains kept their hearts warm and fed them on the bread of life; when their boys were weak and tired, they never wearied, but gave strength from their own souls—drawn by devotion to duty; where the shells burst, and men fell torn and bleeding, they stood calm, heroic living witnesses of the power of that Christian faith which they preached."

Others who paid eloquent tributes to the memory of the departed chaplains and urged the placing of a tablet were Col. Alfred P. Foster, commissioner of public safety; Major Charles C. Stanchfield of the state intelligence department; and Major William Blanchard of the department of the adjutant-general.

"These chaplains," Col. Foster said, "exemplified the finest type of man, soldier and Christian—modest, courageous, sacrificing, they should not be forgotten by the commonwealth. They never can be forgotten by the men of the Yankee Division whom they served, into whose lives they brought sunshine when only clouds were to be seen."

Major Stanchfield declared both men to have been the "salt of the earth," and urged that the tablet be erected without delay. Major Blanchard expressed himself as in accord with all that had been said. There was no opposition.

LOWELL PASTOR GETS CALL TO SEATTLE

A call from the Plymouth Congregational church of Seattle, Wash., was received last night via long distance phone by Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, D.D., pastor of Lowell's First Congregational church. The action on the part of the Washington congregation, which is the most prominent in the western section of the country, following a trans-continental journey by a committee, which attended the services conducted by Dr. Hawkins last Sunday and quickly decided that the local pastor would prove a most valuable man in carrying on the extensive religious work of their church.

A remarkable feature of the coast-to-coast telephone call, Dr. Hawkins was the startling distinctness of the connection, which was established by a direct wire from the central exchange in Seattle. As the vote of the western congregation was communicated, the Lowell pastor was able to hear the enthusiastic hand-clapping which followed. Dr. Hawkins has not yet made public his decision in the matter of going to this new field, but will do so in the near future.

PAID $2000 TO AVOID LABOR TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Albert A. Volk, housewrecking contractor, testified yesterday at the trial of Robert L. Brindell, building trades council president, charged with extortion, that during a legislative committee investigation of the "building trust" last fall, Brindell telephoned him to "play dumb and say nothing."

Volk declared he had paid Brindell $2000 in order that he might continue work on a big contract in the shopping district. He said he offered Brindell a check for the amount, but it was refused and he paid him in $100 bills.

The first experience he had with Brindell, Volk testified, was during the course of some construction work up town. The men working on the job

DENIES GIRLS IMPORTED AND SOLD AT AUCTION

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 27.—There is no evidence in the office of the United States immigration commissioner here to corroborate charges which he made public last Monday, that Armenian girls were being imported into this country and auctioned off to the highest bidder, as wives according to a written statement made today by United States Commissioner Moore.

Harry Selvia, a local rancher, is accused of bringing several women into this country under assumed names and the women are under surveillance. Moore has asked for warrants for their arrests for making false statements on entry.

CHEER MAN WHO REFUSED TO PAY NEW TAX

WILLEMSTAD, D. W. I., Jan. 27.—Collection by the local government of an extraordinary income tax, from which natives of Holland who arrived here since 1912, are exempt, is causing much dissatisfaction. Citizens contend that the tax law has been incorrectly interpreted.

The household effects of a physician who refused to pay the tax were offered for sale at auction today by the government. Although the building in which the sale was held was crowded, there were no bids and the articles were not sold. A cheering crowd carried the physician about shoulder high. Merchants, as a token of their approval of the doctor's refusal to pay the tax, closed their places of business during the afternoon.

TO SOLVE FINANCIAL PROBLEMS AT HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 27.—A committee of 22 Harvard university graduates to assist in solving the financial problems of the university at the close of the endowment fund campaign was announced today by John W. Prentiss of New York, president of the Associated Harvard clubs. G. Cook Kimball, former president of the Associated Harvard clubs, is chairman and the vice presidents are Percy S. Straus, New York; Morton D. Hull, Chicago; B. H. Dibblee, San Francisco and Landet Thomas of Augusta, Ga.

Charles G. Washburn of Worcester, classmate and biographer of Theodore Roosevelt, was announced as chairman of the committee on memorial to the former president.

The directors of the Harvard Alumni association, announced the appointment of Robert H. Halliwell of Reading, Mass., as chief marshal for commencement day, following the custom of appointing a member of the class celebrating its 25th anniversary.

They were called off, he declared, because they were not members of Brindell's organization.

He later signed an agreement with Brindell, he added, whereby only building trades council members were to be employed. These men were working on the contract in the shopping district, on which he paid Brindell $2000 for protection from further labor troubles, he asserted.

Volk said he was told men joining Brindell's union were required to pay $25 each for the privilege.

WILL Not Remain Silent She Says. Lowell Woman Restored to Health By Tanlac After Suffering Eight Years

"I don't see how anyone could get the wonderful relief I have and keep silent about it," said Mrs. Rose Goché, 734 Allen street, Lowell, in relating her experience with Tanlac, recently.

"For about eight years I suffered from stomach trouble so bad that at times even milk would not agree with me. After meals I often had indigestion so bad I couldn't stay up and I had headache for days at a time so bad I could hardly endure it. I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep, and always felt tired and worn out. After while trying to sweep the floor I became so weak and dizzy I had to stop and sit down."

"Well, I just seemed to get worse right on, and was almost in despair when I got Tanlac. But this grand medicine has got me to where I am eating just anything I want without the least pain or distress afterward. I have taken four bottles, and all my troubles are completely gone, and I feel just fine in every way. I certainly feel thankful for my 'good health,' and Tanlac gets all the praise. Tanlac is sold in Lowell by Green's Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative; by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass., and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

LIEUT. FARRELL ADMITS HE WAS "ALL IN"

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Recovering sufficiently from the effects of his recent balloon trip to the frozen north, Lieut. Stephen A. Farrell appeared yesterday before a naval board of inquiry and testified he had scarcely any remembrance of coming to blows with his comrades, Lieut. Walter Hinton, on their return to civilization.

He admitted that several times he lagged behind his companions, Lieut. Kloor and Lieut. Hinton, but he made no mention of a knife. He did, however, say that at the time of the encounter he was "all in," and that after the clash he told Kloor he feared he "was going nutty."

Farrell said that his condition was due to lack of sleep. The night before their arrival at Mattice it was, his turn to stand watch over their camp and when he did lay down toward morning he was unable to sleep.

The party was met five or six miles from Mattice by a party of motion picture photographers, he testified, Kloor and Hinton accepted an invitation to ride into Mattice on the photographers' sled. Farrell said he stayed with the two Indians who had piloted them from Moose Factory and trudged into Mattice after the others.

Bothered by Movie Men
When he reached the camp, Farrell said that he was absolutely "dog tired," but movie men continued to bother him.

"I smiled for them, smoked cigarettes for them and did everything they asked to please them, and was all in when they got through with me," he added.

He said he accepted the invitation of a Hudson Bay company man to go to his room and have tea. While he was in the room, waiting for the man's mother to prepare food, Farrell said, the room began filling with men who began questioning him.

"The questioning seemed to drive me wild," he said. "It worried me. I seemed to be fast losing my sense of reasoning power. I remember one of them telling me about things published about me in the newspapers. I seemed to get all excited. I was shaking all over. When the Hudson Bay man took me to the company's store and from there to the private car, I seemed to be dazed. Dog tired, and all in, I could not sleep when I lay down. I scarcely remember seeing Hinton, and I was going nutty."

At this point Farrell said he did not remember the incident with Lieut. Hinton.

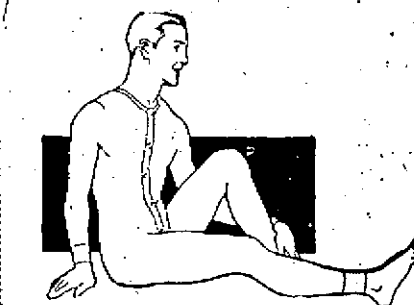

"Kloor told me I had better apologize to Hinton," he said. "And I did so. Lieut. Hinton said I had always been good friends before the incident, and have been since."

In Lieut. Farrell's story of the third day's tramp through the woods, he admitted he felt several times and lagged behind his companions. His story differed at times from that of Hinton and contained no mention of his having a knife or of his companions discussing taking it from him.

After several falls, he said his weakness increased and calling to

ANNUAL MEETING OF MINISTRY-AT-LARGE

The reading of the annual report of Rev. George C. Wright, pastor of the Ministry-at-Large, and the election of the officers for the ensuing year were the features of the annual meeting, which was held last evening in the Free church in Middlesex street. The report of the treasurer, J. Harry

Boardman, showing that the receipts for the year were $403.75, while the expenditures amounted to $146.38, was also read. The meeting appointed the following committee to confer with the heads of the Goodwill Industries: Henry H. Harris, Arthur L. Hiser and Rev. Leslie C. Beckes.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Dudley L. Page; vice presidents, Mrs. M. R. Jefferson and Rev. J. M. Craig; treasurer, J. E. Rev. L. C. Beckes; First Presbyterian, Miss Emily Skilton; Highland Congregational, Miss L. Adelaide Wallingford; First Universalist, Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D.; St. Anne's Episcopal, Rev. Appleton Grannis; Elliot Union, Louis A. Olney; Pawtucket Congregational, Mrs. W. T. S. Bartlett; Paige Street Baptist, Rev. J. C. Hayes; First Primitive Methodist, Rev. Nathaniel W. Matthews; First Congregational, Mrs. C. T. Upton; Fifth Street Baptist, Rosa B. Thomas.

The annual report submitted by Rev. Mr. Wright follows in full:

"During war-time prosperity, when the least skilled worker easily found employment at good wages, the Ministry-at-Large had fewer applicants for assistance in the chartered service of benevolence, education and religion than it has rendered the poorer people of Lowell for more than 50 years. But return to peace conditions brought slackening of industries and unemployment. The pinch of unemployment and want began to be felt acutely in mid-autumn, and the number of applicants for relief then began to tax our resources to their limit, until now we are receiving more applications for relief than we can grant. It is doubtful if more money can now be raised for home relief, as the appeals from Europe have been numerous and urgent and the usual givers to charitable causes have been dried white. Besides many who inherited fairly good fortunes and who regard helping the unfortunate as a family tradition and debt handed to them to respect and pay, have been reduced in fortune and are now unable to do as much as formerly. The new-rich are not yet accustomed to the feeling and way of those long accustomed to ample means."

"During the year 1920 the Ministry-at-Large received 314 applications for supplies or counsel—representing 250 families and 1585 individuals. The supplies were in groceries, fuel, shoes, clothing, milk, meals, medicine, money, and railroad fares. Doctors, hospital service and employment were obtained. The money cost was $2071.54. We have been enabled to function to the full limit of our resources by reason of small administrative expense and the volunteer service of devoted officials and friends."

"Now just a word about industrial prospects and human conditions. While for the next three or four months we shall be called upon for aid to greater extent than our resources can grant, yet the outlook is encouraging to poorer persons. The mild weather and absence of much sickness is in fair favor, business conditions slowly but surely improving, and unemployment slightly decreasing. Wages are lowering, but so is cost of living. The national prohibition law, though, as yet only partially effective, is salutary. The 'alcoholic' is now supplanted by the 'drug addict' in such great number that the hospitals and clinics of the larger cities have inadequate facilities for the treatment. The costliness of the drugs which the drug addict uses is supposed by many to account for the thieving now too frequent. But means will be found to correct this evil, to which the unfortunate are supposed to be particularly exposed."

"The main cause of human backwardness and sin, I have had the opportunity to observe it here for 35 years, is the cause that afflicts all human kind in varying degrees—the cause of feeble-mindedness. It evokes the pity and sympathy like that of a father for his weak and sinning child. Each generation has had to deal with it, and it is decreasing through the efforts of the doctor, the teacher, the minister—the doctor, correcting evils of bodily defects and unhealthy living conditions, the teacher quickening sluggish brain to power of reason and faculty, the minister inspiring moral purpose and strength of will to righteousness. These three working in unity are powers in bestow health, hope and happiness upon mankind."

Tradition says that the 'evil' war was hatched in the old St. Charles hotel in Washington.

The town of Koenigsberg, Germany, in 1558, celebrated bologna sausage as the national dish by making one 600 feet long.

MAY HOLD TRIENNIAL CONVENTION HERE

It is probable that the triennial convention of the Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique will be held in this city next October. This matter will be definitely settled at a meeting of the officers of the various local councils of the union, which will be held this evening in C.N.A.C. hall in Pawtucket street. The meeting is being called under the auspices of Carillon council and will be presided over by L. J. Cornellier, and the officers of the following councils will be in attendance: Carillon, J. N. Jacques, Laval, St. Therese and Notre Dame de Lourdes.

If the Lowell men decide to have the convention in Lowell it will mean that some time in October about 700 people from out of town will spend three days in Lowell, for the delegates from the various councils of the union, which are located in all parts of the country, number about 500 and in addition it is always customary for about 200 other members of the union to attend the meeting.

The last convention of the union was held in Springfield, deliberations taking place in the auditorium, and at that time there were over 500 visitors in the city, among whom were nearly 200 clergymen. The only drawback for the holding of the convention in this city is the matter of hotel accommodations and that is the matter that will be discussed at this evening's meeting. It is understood that local hotel keepers have been interviewed and if the officers of the local councils can see their way clear to properly lodge the numerous delegates, during their stay in Lowell, it is very probable that the general officers of the union will be requested to stage the next convention in this city.

A short time ago F. N. Galtineau, of Southbridge, honorary president general of the union, came to Lowell and conferred with some of the officers of the local councils on the advisability of holding the next congress in this city. Mr. Galtineau came here as the representative of the general board of officers, which is headed by President General Henri T. Leclerc, postmaster of Nashua, N. H., and informed the Lowell men that Lowell was favorable to all as the next convention place, providing hotel accommodations could be secured for the numerous delegates. Conventions of the union were never held in this city and if it is possible to hold the convention here next October it will mean a lot to the Lowell councils and the city in general.

ARREST BOYS WHO TRIED TO SELL PEARLS

Two boys who claim that they are Lawrence residents, are being held on suspicion by the local police in consequence of their attempt to dispose of three large pearls at a Lowell jewelry store. The Lawrence police authorities, when questioned on the telephone, stated that no loss of pearls had been reported to them. The boys declare that the pearls were presented to them by a friend who is now in California.

Harding on Way to the South

Lack of exercise have told materially on his physical condition. Not once since his return from Panama early in December has he been able to visit his favorite playground, the golf links. Walking has been his only recreation and he has found little time even for that.

A fishing trip down the eastern shore of Florida is to occupy the first two weeks of his stay in the south. It is his hope to be completely isolated from observation during the period, though he may venture forth once or twice to play golf. Early in February he will take up his residence at a St. Augustine hotel, where he will remain until just before his inauguration.

The president-elect's private car, which left Marion at midnight, went southward today attached to regular passenger trains and was to pass through Chattanooga late in the afternoon and reach Atlanta during the evening. He will arrive at St. Augustine Sunday.

PARK BOARD PLANS FOR 1921

Program Includes Pawtucket
Riverbank Extension,
Washington Park

And Highlands Playgrounds
and First Street Oval—
Supt. Submits Report

The park commission met last evening and discussed its plans for the year. After considerable discussion it was decided that four important projects should be undertaken. Aside from these four projects the park department will need about $50,000 to maintain what it already has and to do the work.

The four main projects decided upon by the commission last night are the First street oval, Washington Park playground, the Pawtucketville riverbank extension work and the acquisition of four acres of land in the Highlands to give that section of the city a permanent playground. The commission will ask the mayor for a conference relative to the four projects in question and to discuss the order in which they should be taken up.

Frank A. Smith petitioned for the removal of one tree at 68 Marlborough street. This was voted, provided the removal be at Mr. Smith's expense. The petition of John H. Barry for the removal of a large elm tree at 15 Lombard street was referred to the tree committee for further facts. Fred Parent of 94 Boylston street petitioned for the removal of an oak tree and this, too, was referred to the tree committee. Mrs. Ivy M. Nickles, 35 Hampstead street, asked that two poplar trees in front of her house be removed. This was favored but it was left to Superintendent Kernan to handle in some way that might satisfy the petitioner and at the same time preserve shade in the street.

Superintendent's Report

The annual report of the superintendent of parks was presented at the meeting. The report covers the year's activities, the majority of which were mentioned in the press at the time of their occurrence. It makes mention of the comfort station on the South common, the Pawtucketville riverbank extension plans, new public bath house, fourth of July celebration, Port Hill park tennis courts, municipal movies, municipal Christmas tree, playgrounds, etc.

Referring to playgrounds, and the subject is treated at considerable length, Supt. Kernan's report reads, in part, as follows:

One of the most effective means of stimulating interest in the activities of the playground has been the awarding of what is known as the athletic badge test which was tried out for the first time last summer. Small bronze buttons bearing three different designs marking three different degrees in excellence for performing three different standards of tests in athletics were awarded.

The first test was in recognition of a child's ability to perform certain prescribed athletic feats in a certain time or distance, a standard being set.

If they could perform the same tests in better time or distance, a standard being set, they were entitled to a bronze button of the second class; and if they could do still better with still a higher standard being set, they were awarded a button of the third class.

Although the buttons were inexpensive, they were hard to secure and every child who was fortunate enough to win one was extremely proud of his accomplishment, and most of those who failed to qualify worked diligently preparing for the next opportunity to secure one. The different tests were held throughout the summer and the buttons were formally presented at the closing day exercises by the chairman of the board.

Our five playgrounds opened on July 7, and continued for a period of eight weeks. It is a pleasure to report that the school department co-operated with us during the summer, furnishing two instructors, one in industrial work for the boys, and one in cooking for the girls at the Greenidge school in West Centralville. Excellent results were obtained and commendation is due them for their work. It is confidently hoped that this phase of our work may be extended, to other school buildings adjacent to our grounds during this coming summer, so that the children of all sections of the city may have an equal opportunity.

We were extremely fortunate the past summer in having an expert in organized play assigned to us by the Community Service Bureau free of cost, in the person of Miss Louise S. French. The supervisors were called together each week and discussed problems which arose on their respective grounds, and then they were given a talk by Miss French on modern methods of play. During the week Miss French visited the different grounds and aided and assisted the supervisors wherever she could.

The usual amount of industrial work in the line of sewing was again taken up during the season and filled a gap for those children who didn't care about play. They busied themselves by making many useful articles for their home, and in many cases made

MY ANNUAL JANUARY SALE

I have 8 ready-to-wear
Overcoats on hand, sizes 36, 38, 40. You can buy one at your own price.

The tailoring event of the year—the opportunity my customers so eagerly wait for. I have only two sales each year and they are sales worthy of the name. Don't confuse this with so-called sales of marked-up merchandise, for I have reserved NOTHING. Every suit and overcoat pattern in my stock is reduced 20 per cent. below pre-war prices, with which I astounded Lowell men last Fall, before other merchants thought of reducing prices.

I have offered my customers some mighty attractive sales in the past, but never have I cut my prices as in this event. Do not look for further reductions throughout the progress of this sale—there will be none. I am doing the absolute utmost in the interest of my patrons—I will not attempt the impossible.

As matters stand, I believe I am offering you

THE BIGGEST MEASURE OF VALUES OBTAINABLE IN AMERICA

It's no secret that pre-war deflation hits the clothing business hard. Many merchants were caught with large stocks of woollens on hand, which they were forced to order months ago at high prices.

I was not, but I have a large force of tailors in my shop whom I must keep working. It is a moral duty now as never before to keep every employe at work—not one of mine will be laid off, therefore I am making prices that will force buying in this, my JANUARY SALE.

Our closing exercises of the playgrounds were held on the South common on September 2 with Mrs. Julian B. Keyes in charge. The co-operation between the different grounds stood out in evidence, as the program was excellent. The children worked as one group and their difficult dances gave pleasing results. In addition to their dances a simple bit of pageantry was given which met the hearty approval of all. The boys' program of sports which followed, stirred the friends of the competitors to a high pitch of enthusiasm. The final assembling of the various playgrounds on the field led to the presentation of the badges by Chairman Weed of the board of park commissioners, to the girls and boys who had successfully passed the athletic tests of the American Playground association. The program closed with the salute to the flag and singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Our tree work the past year covered trimming trees, which means the removal of all dead and unsightly wood, all low overhanging branches which interfered with the proper use of streets and sidewalks, and those branches which were interfered with by the wires of the public service corporations. It covered the removal of dead, dangerous, and otherwise undesirable trees. Many trees of the latter class were removed where assurance was given that more desirable species would be planted. It also covered the planting of trees.

One or two improvement associations and still a larger number of citizens asked for advice and suggestions regarding the proper care and maintenance of the trees and shrubs growing in their particular locality, which was always willingly and cheerfully given.

Many times during the year applicants desirous of having trees planted in front of their residences would become a little restless because our tree range would not show up the next day on the work asked for. Our policy has been to do the work in the order in which requests have been filed in our office, with the exception of an emergency job. We might, however, have three or four calls on one street, when these would be done the same day. There were weeks when we had as many as 30 requests, some of which would take a good part of a day to complete. Hence, one may see how progress at times seemed slow.

DISCHARGED VETERANS FIGHT REMOVAL

LAWRENCE, Jan. 21.—Whether or not the so-called veterans' preference act really protects from dismissal veterans in the employ of a municipality, the supreme judicial court will undoubtedly be called upon to decide shortly as a result of the discharge yesterday by Alderman and commissioner of public property and parks Michael P. Scanlon of 14 veterans employed in that department.

The discharged veterans have engaged John P. Kane to represent them in fighting their removal, and the issue promises to be an interesting and important one, which will be watched with interest all over the state, as this will be the first test case of its kind under the veterans' preference act.

Coincident with his act of officially discharging the veterans, Alderman Scanlon also announced that his department, which has been closed since noon on January 3 because of the controversy about the veterans, will be reopened today, and that near by help will replace those dismissed from the department service.

The discharged veterans were originally employed by ex-Alderman John A. Flanagan, who last month was defeated for re-election by Alderman Scanlon. Immediately after his inauguration the latter discharged many of the department's old employees and notified the 14 ex-servicemen that he intended to get rid of them also, and that the department would be closed down until such time as he made sure of his ground. They employed Attorney Kane and, acting under his advice, have been reporting daily, to be informed each day, however, that there was no work for them.

Meanwhile Alderman Scanlon requested from City Solicitor Daniel J. Murphy an interpretation of the veterans' preference act, and it was as a result of the handling down of an opinion by the solicitor that the Alderman made yesterday's move.

In the opinion Solicitor Murphy informed Alderman Scanlon that "I can find no authority that seems to me conclusively decisive of this legal question upon the facts as they exist in the city of Lowell. In my judgment, the act is not free from doubt, and can be settled finally only by a decision of the supreme judicial court determining what was the intent of the legislature as expressed by these statutes.

"If in your judgment the best interests of the city in the operation of the department of public property warrant a judicial determination of this matter, then it is for you to say as the director of this department whether such judicial determination shall come about by discharging the men claiming the preference or by discharging a single claimant and making of his discharge a test case."

CATARRH GERMS

Move Out When Hyomei Moves In

No stomach dosing. Hyomei is made chiefly of oil of eucalyptus taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with other excellent antiseptics.

In inland Australia, the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs do not thrive, and in consequence coughs, colds, catarrh and other nose and throat afflictions are practically unknown.

Breathe Hyomei and get the same pleasant, germ killing effect as you would get in the eucalyptus forests.

Hyomei is sold by druggists everywhere on a guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded.—Adv.

OPERA HOUSE
"At 2.45," the week's production by the Lowell Players at the Opera House, is one of the most entertaining mystery melodramas ever presented here. You will say so when you see it. It will be especially interesting to attend and try to solve the mystery as it is unfolded by the play itself. Only four more performances. Try and attend. It's worthy of liberal patronage.
The attraction for the coming week will be Victor Herbert's big singing success, "The Only Girl," a musical comedy with a country-wide reputation. A large chorus, including some of Lowell's best known talent, and an augmented orchestra will help make the offering acceptable to all.

THE STRAND
One of the strangest companion-ship known in popular literature forms the basis for the story of "The Strand," a Tom Mix Western which is being shown at the Strand. A remarkable trio, bound together by primitive instincts, consist of a man, horse and dog. It's an interesting story and the star shows to his best advantage. The other feature on the bill is Eva Novak in "Wanted at Headquarters," and the remainder of the bill includes a good comedy and weekly, as well as good musical numbers by Miss Lila Robbins.

R. F. KUTCH'S THEATRE
Ruby Norton, the classiest entertainer Lowell has known this season, is acclaimed by all who see her at Kutch's this week, as most reminiscent of the prima donna who, a few years ago, starred in the big musical comedy, "Miss Norton does preclude herself as 'class' all of the time. Her singing, her dancing, her general stage presence are of the best kind. Demarest & Colette in "Strips and Strippers" are also entertainers, and Mr. Hymark is a bona fide novelty. Every turn on the week's bill is good. Kelly & Pollock, comedians, Emsdell & Bernard, comedians, The Randall's sharpshooters, and Norman the frog man.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
"Love," starring emotional Louise Glauco tops the program for the last three days of this week. The picture has been produced in the most lavish manner possible. Miss Glauco is noted for her beautiful moves, especially outside herself. In this picture, the theme of the story deals with the maternal love of older sister for younger, and the pure love of two sweethearts who finally find happiness.

THE COMING OF "MADAME X"
The coming of "Madame X" to the Strand at a date in the near future gives every promise of establishing new record attendance figures. This picture has been secured at big expense but, despite this fact, the Strand management will charge the regular price of admission. You probably have read the book and you certainly have seen the stage version. Now see the picture story and enjoy it all the more.

LEGHORN, Jan. 21.—Communist leaders who have been attempting to carry the Italian socialist party into the Moscow internationale have suffered a decisive defeat at the party's congress here. They were outvoted 2 to 1. It was announced today that the communists would bolt the congress and form an organization of their own.

Berlin Communists in Demonstration

BERLIN, Jan. 21.—Communist members of the Berlin city council staged a noisy demonstration when it was announced last night that Dr. Gustav Hoess had been elected lord mayor of the greater city. They accused the majority socialists of betraying socialism. Dr. Hoess received 114 votes against 95 for Dr. Weyl, independent socialist.

Spanish Cabinet Not to Resign

MADRID, Jan. 21.—Premier Dato secured only 154 votes in the chamber of deputies last night when he called for a vote of confidence. The remainder of the members of the chamber left the house without voting. The premier declared himself satisfied and indicated his cabinet would not resign. Many deputies criticized the action of the government in connection with the strike of civil officials of the ministry of the treasury. This strike has threatened to spread to other departments and has caused much concern throughout Spain. Lorenzo Pascual, minister of finance is reported to have tendered his resignation.

DEPARTMENT OF LABORTABLE ON WAGE CUTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—A department of labor table published today said that if the maximum wage cut of 22 1/2 per cent, so far reported from any cotton mill were applied generally in the industry to 1920 scales, it would leave an hourly wage 25 times as high as prevailed in 1913 or 1.14 times as high as in 1918.

The 1920 figures, the table showed, were 3.6 times as high as in 1907; 3.2 times as high as in 1913 and 1.5 times as high as in 1918. At the same time the average full time work for male frame spinners in 1920 was 50.7 hours as compared to 52.4 in 1907 and 56.9 in 1913 and for female frame spinners 51.8 hours in 1920 as compared to 61.0 in 1907 and 57.8 in 1913.

KEITH'S THEATREUSHERS' DANCE

Keith's theatre was deserted last night as far as ushers were concerned. They held their seventh annual dance in Assoluto hall last evening and immediately after they completed their duties of seating the audience in the theatre repaired to the hall where they took part in the festivities. About 400 couples were entertained during the evening and several of the performers who have been acting at Keith's during this week provided a varied entertainment program during the evening.

The guests of the evening were Mayor and Mrs. Perry D. Thompson, Commissioners D. A. Murphy, G. E. Marchand, John F. Salmon and James B. Donnelly, Manager Benjamin E. Pickett of Keith's theatre and Man-

Those responsible for the success of the affair were: Donald F. Morris, general manager; John J. Leahy, assistant general manager; Edward Harbara, floor director; Thomas Colburn, assistant floor director; Arthur Peters, chief aid; William E. Leahy, treasurer.

Y.M.C.A. ACTIVITIES

Another rehearsal for those to take part in the Y.M.C.A. minstrel show was held last evening in the institute rooms in Stackpole street. General dancing was enjoyed after the practice. The next meeting for rehearsal, it was announced, will be held Sunday afternoon. The basketball team of the Y.M.C.A. has entered the City league. Games of which will soon begin and he played in Legion hall in Dutton street.

ALLEGED DESERTERS

Mayor Perry D. Thompson has been advised that the following Lowell boys have been declared deserters from the United States naval service: John Roy, 54 Austin street, U. S. Coast Guard, New London, Conn.; Frank P. Hazul, 65 Hudson street, U.S.S. Utah.

At the beginning of the seventeenth century books published in England were placed under strict censorship.

LISBON SOCIAL CLUB

Ladies' night was observed last evening by the Lisbon social club in its quarters in Central street. The affair was well attended and proved very enjoyable. General dancing was enjoyed from 8 o'clock until midnight. The committee in charge was Manuel Silva, Joseph Correla, Manuel Correla, Anthony Braga, Manuel Avila.

losing end of the ledger at the end of the year. For the most part, streets were selected that were practically devoid of trees. A few were planted on the South common and at Fort Hill park. Tree guards were placed about those who thought would have the hardest time to thrive, because of the molestation of mischievous persons.

Recommendations

I respectfully recommend that the wings of the new public bath house on the boulevard be extended 20 feet on each end and additional locker accommodations built therein.

That the new parkway started last year at the bridgehead in Fawcettville along the river bank be continued insofar as funds will permit.

That an athletic field in the Highlands be purchased at once, as it may be obtained more reasonably now than later. Only a few desirable sites remain and if building continues in the next few years as it has in the past, no land will be available.

That Washington park be purchased as it will accommodate people in the lower Highlands and alleviate a very congested section.

That the policy of planting a few hundred street trees be continued each year so that our numbers will not be impaired in years to come.

That an iron fence of an ornamental design be installed around the city hall grounds, in place of the wire one now in use. A fence of some kind is an absolute necessity, as without one we would have neither grass nor shrubs. I feel that the style of fence should be in keeping with the building and grounds.

That the state authorities be urged to make some definite move toward the completion of the First street boulevard, as not until then can anything tangible be done on the proposed oval which we confidently hope will serve as a stadium for all athletic games, almost in the heart of the city.

That an open air dance hall be built at the South common, operated under the direction of the board, following somewhat the lines of one at Hartford, Conn. This one is supervised by three matrons, who see to it that order and decorum are maintained at all times. It closes at 10.30 p. m. and for 10 cents one couple is permitted to dance the entire evening. This issue might just as well be met whether one favors dancing or not, as at least 75 per cent of the young people today want to dance. Accepting this as a fact, unquestionably it is preferred that they go to a place properly handled and where commercializing is done away with by those in charge.

So many improvements might be proposed to add beauty and utility to our existing parks, as many projects of park and driveway acquisition and improvement might be outlined, that it is rather difficult to refrain from recommending many things that are impossible to accomplish on account of existing financial conditions. However, recognizing these conditions, only those changes and improvements are recommended in the foregoing paragraphs which are really necessary, and that can be accomplished by a loan order of approximately $50,000 and by which our annual appropriation for maintenance will not be impaired.

In conclusion, permit me to thank the board for its support given during the year, employees of the department for their faithfulness, the city officials, the playground teachers, the newspapers, and the public in general for the many kind favors rendered and the spirit of co-operation that has been shown the past year.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT
Elizabeth Lennox, whose picture appears in an advertisement in another part of the paper, is the contralto soloist for "Elijah" to be sung by the Choral Society on Jan. 25. While her name is doubtless familiar to the owners of Brunswick phonographs, which she makes records exclusive to the local musical public at Jar she is a newcomer whose appearance is awaited with much interest. Her favorable have been the reports of her work.
At present Miss Lennox is the contralto soloist at the First Presbyterian church, in Fifth Avenue, New York, a by sheer force of a beautiful voice, skillful production, clear enunciation and forceful interpretation. She is an artist of the standing of Miss Lennox to sing the comparatively simple contralto role in "Elijah."
Reserved seats for this concert may be obtained at Steinert's.

WOOD YARD

FOR ALIEN POOR

NEW BEDFORD, Jan. 21.—The overseers of the poor yesterday voted to open a wood yard where aliens who are now receiving aid from the city will be required to work for their allowance from the poor department. The wood yard will be opened at the poor farm, where about 250 cords of wood purchased last summer are waiting to be sawed and split. It is believed that the new scheme will discourage some of the undeserving applicants who have been imposing upon the department.

"At first," said Mr. Cohen, chairman of the board, "we will employ only aliens because these men are barred from the civil service list and have no chance to enter city employment as laborers. Payment will be in the form of grocery orders issued by this department. The plan will be to let the applicants work out the amount of their grocery orders, allowing them $3 a day for their services. The men who receive a $6 order will get a work two days. The men who get a $9 order will have to work three days. Any who refuse to work will be denied further aid from this department. We believe that a certain number will prefer not to work."

MISS JOYCE HOSTESS

High School Instructor in Elocution, "Tendera Banquet to Cast of Play Recently Presented at Opera House."

Miss Mary Joyce, elocution instructor of the high school, tendered a banquet in Pao's restaurant last evening to all those who contributed towards the success of the recent school play, "Happiness," in the Opera House. A special table was prepared in the dining hall and all were seated by some special arrangement and pleasing device according to the parts which the students took in the play. Novel favors were distributed to all present.

Miss Joyce acted as toastmistress and chairman of the party. Her introductory remarks were brief, but to the point. She expressed her appreciation of the efforts displayed by the players during rehearsals and thanked all who in any way contributed to the success of the play.

Those present were Miss Mary Joyce, Miss Anna Lee Maguire, Chas. J. Keyes and the following high school players, Miss Rose Neyman, James Howe, Miss Mary Casey, Miss Helen Reardon, Miss Helen Sawyer, Raymond Donovan, Miss Helen Chadwick, Miss Ruth Pollard, Everett Rixby and Gregory McAdams.

All of those present at the banquet repaired to the Opera House where they were assigned reserved seats to witness this week's production by the Lowell players.

buildings were shattered with dynamite and reports reaching here indicate several adjacent structures were quite severely damaged.

Maj. Gen. Sir Edward Strickland, commander of crown troops in Ireland, stated yesterday at Cork that martial law was producing beneficial results and that arms were being surrendered by or captured from Sinn Feiners. He admitted, however, that only a handful of Irish republican leaders had given themselves up to the British government, and added that his men were most seriously handicapped by the activities of women who were carrying arms to fugitive Sinn Feiners.

Break Up Sinn Fein Army

CORK, Jan. 21 (by the Associated Press).—In the first formal interview given to the press since he came to Ireland, Maj. Gen. Strickland, in command of the troops, told the Associated Press yesterday that martial law was proving a success.

He discussed the reprisals and his letter to the acting lord mayor explained that he expected aid from the citizens in the shape of a vigilance committee of some kind to supply information to the military. He did not allude to his report on the burning of Cork.

Among the interesting statements made by Gen. Strickland was one that women carried weapons concealed in their skirts to the ambushes. He declared he did not expect immediate results from martial law, but even before it was imposed the murder gang was finding it impossible to live at home, and had begun to form flying columns in the Mallow district and parts of Tipperary and Kilkenny.

"The first result of martial law was to make these columns more active," he said. "The definite thing we are accomplishing is the breaking of the organization of the republican army. Until martial law was declared that organization was remarkably efficient; its formations were almost as well organized as those of the British army."

"It might be taken as too optimistic to say that the present operations of the republican army are its dying kick, but I believe that to be a fact. How long they can keep going is a matter of conjecture. But it is only a question of time."

In reply to a question as to what results had been obtained up to the present by the proclamations demanding the surrender of arms, Gen. Strickland admitted it probably was true that the number of arms personally surrendered could be counted on the fingers of one hand, but added:

"In one way or another arms are coming in."

Gen. Strickland spoke bitterly of the part he alleged women were taking as arms bearers.

"The military are not making war on women or interfering with them in any way," he said, "so the difficulty of getting the arms in the possession of the women may be imagined."

Concerning the suggestion that the people of Cork form a vigilance committee, the general remarked: "Sixteen months ago, when I first came to Ireland, County Clare was a hotbed of republican activity."

Recognizes British Board

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—The Westmeath county council at a meeting at Mullingar yesterday decided to recognize the local government board.

Curfew in Cork

CORK, Jan. 21.—A proclamation was issued by the military authorities yesterday announcing that the curfew on Saturday and Sunday in Cork would begin thereafter at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

A majority of the ambushes and other disorders here have occurred Saturday nights, including the recent big fire.

Blow Up Houses

CORK, Jan. 21.—In the blowing up

of two houses of Sinn Feiners Saturday a large military force stood guard as the work progressed.

The military force arrived on the scene at 11 o'clock and drew a cordon around several blocks and no one was permitted to enter or leave the area.

Dwyer's wholesale drapery, the largest in Southern Ireland, was systematically searched, the raid being expected to last several hours.

The work of blowing up the designated houses was gone about carefully in order to prevent damage to adjoining property.

The houses selected for reprisal are said to have been occupied by well known Sinn Fein sympathizers, who were given a warning to clear out. They were permitted to remove their furniture, and then military engineers prepared for the demolition of the buildings. Meanwhile officers with drawn revolvers ordered the large crowd that had gathered to disperse, saying that otherwise it would be fired on.

A 11.40 o'clock yesterday afternoon ten loud explosions followed at intervals of several minutes, causing consternation throughout the city. Up to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, however, no fires had broken out and no visible damage had been done to houses outside the zone surrounded by the military.

The raid continued until 5 o'clock in the evening, when the troops were withdrawn. It was then found that two three-story houses had been demolished, only the walls remaining standing, and that a provision shop adjacent had almost been wrecked by the force of the explosions. Scores of windows in other buildings were shattered.

BALTIMORE LEADS IN SALARY ADVANCES

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 21.—With an increase of $600 per year to the average teacher, Baltimore is shown to lead the list of American cities in amount of salary advances to be granted to public school workers during the past year, according to a survey of the national educational situation just completed by the better schools service, a bureau of the American Federation of Teachers.

This bureau has been compiling statistics and reports since 1914. The teacher shortage became acute, Philadelphia is shown to bring up the rear of all cities, its increase being only from $50 to $125 per year.

The average increase for cities of more than 100,000 population is listed at $350 per year, for cities of between 50,000 and 100,000 three hundred and thirty-two dollars, in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, three hundred and seventy-one dollars.

Reports from all over the country show that the general advance in salaries still leaves teachers more inadequately paid than previous to 1914, said William T. McCoy, director of the survey in making the first findings public.

Teachers are still at the bottom of skilled workers in the wage scale, he added. "The measures of relief have been palliative only. They may have checked momentarily the disintegration in the public school system of this country but they have not arrested it. All reports show that there must be fundamental changes in the policy of financing education before schools are safe from current deterioration."

Prominent Business Man Expresses His Appreciation
Over Toxo Treatment

"The reason that I'm telling you this is because of this little friend," said a prominent business man as he held up a little package. We smiled, for we were happy to see the thing he displayed was a box of Toxo, the wonderful treatment for constipation and indigestion.

"As I was walking along the street the other day," continued the business man, "I had seven of my friends stop me and remark how well I was looking. And every time I had to laugh to myself for the secret was the little Toxo treatment package in my pocket. When I read how it works, I was and the misery I went through, all due to constipation and stomach trouble, I really believe that it's a horrible dream. I was all run down and tired out. My face was pale and I felt nervous and nervous. My bowels were out of order and my breath was so bad I feared to go near any of my friends. I had terrible headaches and felt sharp, hot pains in my stomach and it seemed as if I had suffered for years until I commenced using Toxo. It wasn't but a short time later that I was myself again, my bowels were working in good shape and everywhere I went people spoke of how well I looked. I've made up my mind to tell the secret to all my friends so they may enjoy the wonders of Toxo treatment—whether it be for constipation, indigestion or other stomach ills or liver."

Toxo as a treatment for constipation or indigestion, as well as any stomach trouble, has done wonders ever since it has been offered to the public. It is found to be prepared only for the personal use of thousands of doctors all over the country. You now need no prescription to buy it. Simply get it at "Toxo" drug stores on Merrimack street by asking for Toxo. It is pleasant to take and mild in action. Keep it in the house at all times.—Adv.

Normal school enrollment over the nation is the barometer of the educational system. This barometer is now very low. Even the Baltimore increase is reported by Maryland educators to have been inadequate.

Among the larger American cities, Louisville and Patterson (N. J.) rank next to Baltimore, with $500 each as the average annual increase. Chicago, Toledo, San Francisco and Kansas City take next place with $450 each. St. Louis, Oakland, Tacoma gave $420 apiece with Spokane close behind with $400. Boston, Los Angeles and Houston awarded a raise of $350, with Atlanta and Minneapolis $300 each. Indianapolis, Cleveland and Des Moines gave $200.

Of cities between 50,000 and 100,000 Terre Haute, Ind., leads with an average teacher advance of $450. Portland, Me., gave $400 and Gary, Ind., $320.

In the third group cities between 25,000 and 50,000 Montclair, N. J., tops the list with $500. Newton, Mass., being next with $450.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 21.—Noon-day lunches will be eliminated every other day by 1100 high school pupils of Evansville until $500 is raised for the starving children of Europe, it was announced yesterday. EX-PRES. TAFT TALKS ON DISARMAMENT

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 21.—Former President William H. Taft, who is spending a month here, said in an interview that "the enormous burden of debt of every country makes it almost indispensable that the necessity of armament be removed. You can only do that by joint action and joint agreements and by promises of settling all differences without fighting."

"They are already discussing seriously in the United States an agreement for disarmament or the limitation of armament and strangely enough this comes in part at least, from men who have been vigorously opposed to any league at all," he continued.

"I am very hopeful that under Mr. Harding we shall reach a conclusion with other leading nations for an association or league which shall mark the advance brought about by the war toward reasonable machinery for the avoidance of future conflicts. This will involve the sitting around the council table of all important nations and will imply the taking of joint measures to compose differences and to restrain a resort to the unsatisfactory and bloody arbitrament of war."

"Lately I have often been questioned as to the attitude of the United States toward Great Britain. Of course the United States consists of some 110,000,000 people with many different currents of thought permeating the mass. Many different groups too will be found and there are some of these groups, more than vocal representative of real public opinion who manifest bitter feeling against Britain. But when an important question arises, when a real issue comes before us, then the sober public opinion of the United States asserts itself."

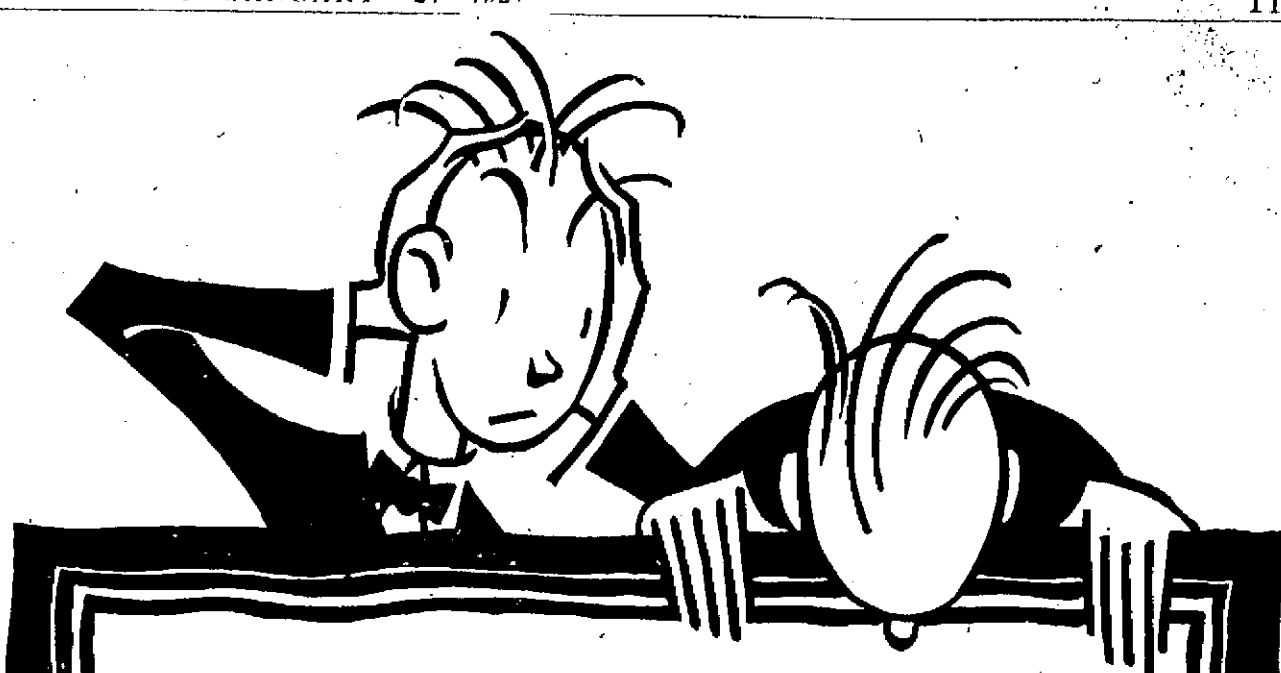

"I never have had the slightest concern over the relations of the two countries. We form the strongest bulwark for peace between nations that exists in the world today. We have got into the habit of settling all our differences by means of negotiation and arbitration. The great body of the people in the United States cannot conceive of a war between the two countries because they are confident that any matters in dispute can and will be settled either by negotiation or by the judgment of a court as with people in any domestic jurisdiction where law and order prevail."

Speaking of business conditions in the United States, he said they were not alarming. "We are a very resilient people and can fight our way out," he said. "Congress is attempting to help in the matter of credits."

GUATEMALA TO REDUCE ARMY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Guatemala's standing army of 15,000 men is to be cut to 5000. Julio Bianchi, minister from Guatemala, announced last night.

"The era of petty wars and revolution, I believe, is at an end," he said, calling attention to the recent decision of the Central American Union congress for a federation of Central American republics. Guatemala, he added, by reducing her army, proved her belief "that confidence had superseded fear in Central America," and also would save $50,000 a month.

EUROPEAN DRIVERS IN INDIANAPOLIS RACE

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Three European nations will be represented in the ninth annual 500-mile International Sweepstakes race, on the Indianapolis motor speedway May 30. French, British and Italian cars will compete for the $50,000 prize and an equal amount of accessory awards.

France has been represented in every race by foreign drivers and cars from across the water, since 1913, except the war years of 1915 and 1916. England has not started a car in the races since the war and Italy has been absent from the Hoosier classic since the fleet of Isotta raced in 1917.

Much interest of the fans will be centered in the Italian delegation. According to information received here from W. E. Bradley, the European representative of the speedway, the Fiat is finally going to send over a team of three cars. Louis Wagner, who won the first American grand prize at Savannah in 1908, is expected to captain the team, although Fiat has not announced its drivers or formally entered. A decade ago the Italian car was more feared than any racing outfit, rivaling the German Benz for supremacy in America. Its last appearance in the local classic was in 1912, when Tully Zeitling finished second to Joe Dawson's National.

The racer will flutter from the helmets of at least seven drivers piloting three Penebots and four Ballots. The Peugeot is said to have some new 153-inch cars with Jules Goux as team captain. While no overtures have been made to Howard Wilcox, the Indianapolis boy who won with this make in 1915, it is expected that he will have one of the trio. The Ballot "right-in-line" team will number four.

It has been announced that Ralph De Palma and Jean Chagnagne will have two of these cars, but the other members have not been selected.

The British entry will be the Sunbeam, the factory which has tried since 1912 to win the 500-mile race.

Dario Resta, 1915 Indianapolis winner and American champion, and Andre Bollet will drive two of the three new Sunbeams designed by Louis Coata-

ten. It is possible that the third Sunbeam may fall to Rene Thomas, the 1914 winner. If it does not it will be because France will have another team in the race, with Thomas at the helm.

It is also reported on the other side that Jean Porporato has been busy this winter putting the power plants of the frigates, which were entered last year, in new and lighter chassis and that the Italian will be back battling for the winner's purse on Memorial day.

With a certain foreign field of 13 cars and the probability of not less than 20, the Europeans are certainly not to win the ninth race.

Dr. Scherer Why He Quit As C. and for Movies

(N.E.A. Staff Special)
PARADISE, Jan. 21.—James Augustin Brown Scherer, Ph.D., L.L.D., is writing for the movies.
He resigned as president of the California Institute of Technology to continue scenarios for Lasky.
"I believe my new job as a teacher is of equal importance with the old," says Dr. Scherer.
"A book that sells 10,000 copies is doing well. But put your message in successful film form and 40,000,000 people receive it."
The photographer challenges the writer's attention because it is so essentially democratic. It speaks a universal language.
So, take that, you gentlemen of the pen who espouse Potterism and take the "holier-than-thou" attitude toward the screen.

Lasky Blasted
Jesse Lasky is particularly elated by the accession of Doctor Scherer, which follows his open letter to London newspapers, in which he said:
"The motion picture is challenging the position long held by the printed word as the chief medium for the dissemination of thought."

He named a list of authors and asked whether they could afford to resist their output to "the comparatively select circle of book-lovers."

Retorts New York and East.
Max Pemberton, British author and playwright, arose to remark that "one cannot read a photograph in bed."
"It is not grinding through a horse collar," he continued. "Audiences of culture and first-rate intelligence demand talk and color in drama."
Arnold Bennett, who writes books and plays, said that he couldn't believe "that in an incredibly short time the influence of the film will outstrip that of books and plays."

The Dollar Argument
Then George Bernard Shaw took pen in hand.
"If the film companies would offer a quarter as much to any novelist for a scenario," said Shaw, "as they eagerly pay to an American producer to spoil it and spend $5,000, I would in the process, it would not be necessary to write letters to the papers asking novelists to come forward; rather would it be advisable to engage extra police to stem the tide."

Doctor Scherer is 50. He married in Japan, where he founded the Lutheran mission. He also occupied a pulpit for six years in Charleston, S. C.

MERCHANT PREVENTS RUN ON LISBON BANK

LISBON, Jan. 21.—One of the oldest and best known bankers of this city was recently saved from the effects of a run on his bank by a sensational incident. A large crowd of depositors had gathered at the office of the banker, J. H. Totta, to demand their money. The street was blocked by them. The firm was paying out the money rapidly when a well-known Lisbon merchant who was a spectator of the rush on the bank, enraged by the scene, jumped on the counter and reviled the crowd in no measured language. He recalled the honorable name of the head of the firm and said that by his kindly aid many of the present had reaped fortunes, but their base ingratitude was now threatening to bring about his ruin.

As his eloquence increased, an extraordinary transformation scene took place. Someone raised a cheer which was echoed by thousands. The bank employees who had calmly been paying out thousands of pounds to all who claimed their deposits were embraced by the depositors, checks were torn to pieces and the elder Totta, 80 years of age, was dragged from an inner office and raised on the shoulders of the crowd amid cheers.
Since then the bank has received nearly all the money that had been withdrawn.

The affair is an outcome of the recession in Portugal of the stringent financial and economic situation which seems to prevail in the markets of Europe. Business in Lisbon was virtually at a standstill in part of last month owing to the continued fall in the rate of exchange which, in the opinion of the Portuguese, attained alarming proportions. The situation was aggravated also by a new financial program which threatened to make a heavy increase in taxation.
Other factors which have contributed to the depression are bad crops, excess of imports over exports, shortage of foodstuffs and fuel, profligacy and incessant strikes.

PARCEL POST RUSH To Follow Weight Increase in French Mail

(N.E.A. Staff Special)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The parcel post mail between France and the United States is expected to double in volume as the result of the order increasing the maximum of packages from 11 to 22 pounds.

The order results from several months' negotiation between Postmaster General Burleson and postal officials of France.
The agreement provides for an insurance feature to start July 1. The new weight limit becomes effective Feb. 1.

The order not only affects continental France and United States but all the island possessions and colonies of the two nations.

NEVER "BONE DRY" That's John Kramer's Idea About National Prohibition

(N.E.A. Staff Special)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—One and one-half per cent. wet—that's how dry John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner, wants the United States.
"New York and New Jersey are still unconverted," says Kramer. "But Pennsylvania is practically within the fold."

"Everything has been written and spoken to discount prohibition, but it has come to stay. I believe that even light wines and beers will not be legalized."

"However, it's likely that the country will never be entirely dry—anyway, not as long as they disapprove prohibition. In New York and New Jersey as they do now."

MONTE CARLO FOR CUBA

Bankrupt Island is Gripped By Gambling Frenzy—Fortunes Change Hands

(N.E.A. Staff Special)
HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 21.—America is soon to have a Monte Carlo all its own if plans for gambling palaces in bankrupt Cuba develop as given out.

This follows the announcement that the Prince of Monaco is preparing to close the famous European resort, centering in Oriental park where the horses of two continents ran every afternoon, the gambling mania spreading in the provinces of Cuba. Fortunes change hands every day.

Several villages have been surveyed for extensive gambling resorts. In Havana the Casino de la Playa, which advertises "Games" in all daily newspapers, is a great, garish temple of profit, where dinners are served at almost any hour of the day. The word for "the house" comes at "the wheel."

Crawls Play Roulette
"The Roulette Room" is a small, dimly lighted room. No man takes a woman to the Casino without offering to "back" her at the wheel. Whatever she wins is hers to keep. Whatever she loses is his to pay.

No wonder the women press close to the tables and down into the high French windows.
With guards in evening dress moving constantly from group to group, the room is ever orderly. Seldom are words heard. Only the click and clatter of the marble ball as it spins round the wheel.

Until recently A. de Segura, formerly second baritone of the Metropolitan Opera company, managed the Casino.
He resigned a few days ago, after the publication of a challenge for a duel between two Cubans. The affair was said to have been caused by the mention of a woman's name. Segura was reported to have been connected with the quarrel.

The moratorium has scarcely affected the crowds at the Casino, possibly because they are made up mostly of tourists.
Americans seem to prefer dice to roulette. The crumpers will "shoot craps" with any visitor at the Casino.

PARKER WINS FROM GIBBS IN 2 ROUNDS

The three bouts staged by the Crescent Athletic Club, which took place last night in the gymnasium, all coming early, and the fans who assembled around the ring-side expecting a few hours of entertainment, were disappointed. The first bout, in which just a few rounds of boxing were seen, Charles Parker, of Boston, and Sallor Joe Gibbs, also of the Hub of the Commonwealth, were the principals in the main event scheduled for ten rounds. As they had met in two previous bouts, both of which went the limit, all looked for a re-entertainment in the performance. As the fight looked in vain, for Parker was in a frame of mind, and cut loose a fusillade of blows in the first round that indicated he was out to win decisively. The fight had not been in progress more than a minute when Parker landed a terrific wallop on Gibbs' nose and the latter sank to the floor. He took the count of nine and arose and closed in on Parker, who refused to fight. He held on. He shook him off with a left and again peppered his face with well directed blows. Gibbs went down a second time. Parker landed a good one more. A third time Parker landed on the face and Gibbs dropped to the floor. He showed remarkable gameness and recuperative powers for he got to his feet and held Parker off for the remainder of the round. But the punishment he accumulated in the opening stages found him weak when he engaged in the second round. Parker's resistance had his opponent's measure closed in and sent in a terrific right to the jaw and a left cross to the body and Gibbs hit the canvas. He was on his feet at nine, but Parker shot over another to the head and he dropped. At this point Referee Jack Connor, of Lawrence, halted activities and pointed to Parker.

The semi-final between Young Avila of Lowell and Stoney McGlynn, of Boston, lasted less than a round. McGlynn started out with a right clip, but he made the mistake of hitting Avila had a fine defense and met his opponent as he came in. The going was extremely fast for about one minute and McGlynn was stinging Avila. Avila then took the offensive and sent McGlynn against the ropes. He ended up a fusillade of blows that brought McGlynn to his knees. McGlynn was on his feet and McGlynn a count. Immediately called off the bout and gave Avila the decision. The hasty action of the referee did not meet with the approval of the fans.

The preliminary found Joe Armstrong of Lowell against Young McDough of Boston. It went a round and a half with McDough the winner.

DOWD BEATS MCCARTHY
BOSTON, Jan. 21.—Dan Dowd, of South Boston, defeated Pat McCarthy of Boston in a 10-round bout at the Commercial A. C. last night. There was so much clinching that the fans were not much interested in the contest.

McCarthy did most of the holding. Occasionally the men did some clean hitting, but most of their punches were landed on the body when they were in close. In some seasons they were in close, but McCarthy did manage to get over a few punches to Dowd's jaw.

In most of the rounds it was a case of both sending punches to the head and then clinching. The referee, Billy Woods, was the decision over Jack McCarthy, the fighting blacksmith, in eight rounds. Billy Shins won from Soldier Carman in six rounds. Jack By made the Vergas stop in one round.

CHAMBERS KNOCKS OUT MADDEN
NASHUA, N. H., Jan. 21.—Kick Chambers of Biddeford, Me., knocked out Harry Madden of Lowell in the fifth round of an eight-round bout at the show of the Gate City Athletic Club. Chambers' left eye was closed in the first round and in the sixth round he closed the right eye and sent him to the door twice.

COCHRAN WOULD STAGE FIGHT IN LONDON
LONDON, Jan. 21.—The original contract for the Dempsey-Carpenter boxing bout is considered valid by Charles B. Cochran, the English boxing promoter, a party to the agreement. In an office announcement today, his associates said he had received official authority for William A. Brady of New York to speak in Mr. Cochran's behalf.

The statement read: "As far as Mr. Cochran is concerned, the original contract for the Dempsey-Carpenter fight holds. If Messrs. Brady or Rickard have withdrawn, that is beyond our control. But it is true, Mr. Cochran offers $100,000 to stage the fight in London."

It was stated that Mr. Cochran had not heard directly from Mr. Brady but was inclined to believe the offering of the New York state boxing commission as to a maximum admission fee to the fight might have caused him to "get out from under."

B. C. OFFER $10,000 FOR FOOTBALL GAME
BOSTON, Jan. 21.—A guarantee of $10,000 or 50 percent of the gate receipts is offered Boston college football eleven of equal standing that will meet them here Nov. 5. Graduate Manager Frank Reynolds of Boston College has offered a team which won every game last fall was prepared to meet all comers, but to date had been unsuccessful in arranging a game for Nov. 5. Boston college will play either Dartmouth, Syracuse, Brown or Colgate. Reynolds said. Negotiations with Dartmouth are pending. Fifty percent of the gate receipts at a well attended game would amount to approximately $25,000.

He was arrested yesterday, charged with holding up a store clerk and was said to have confessed to the charge as well as to several other crimes. Ringle swallowed poison. With him were arrested two other youths who also confessed to robbery. A note sent by Ringle to one of the other boys in school yesterday, boasting of a robbery the night before reached the police and caused Ringle's arrest.

Briand Replies to Interpellations

PARIS, Jan. 21.—Premier Briand replied to interpellations in the chamber of deputies today. The new cabinet's declaration of policy which was read before the chamber and the senate yesterday, seemed to have been a disappointment to many and real interest centered around today's debate which preceded the taking of a vote of confidence. There seemed but little doubt that the ministry would be endorsed, as M. Briand was virtually assured of a good working majority.

FREE TRIP TO THE PACIFIC COAST

Tomorrow afternoon will mark the close of the opportunity of getting a free trip to the Pacific coast by enlisting with the Fourth Division stationed at Camp Lewis, state of Washington. The local army recruiting station in Central street, under the command of Col. Halley, U. S. Cavalry, has been enlisting men for this outfit during this week. Enlistments are being made for three years and it was pointed out this morning that there are special opportunities for ex-service men to win commissions at Camp Lewis.

Just at this time of the year the neighborhood of Camp Lewis is in the bloom of spring. The camp is not far from Tacoma and Seattle, Washington, where many huge fairs and fete are staged each year, according to Colonel Halley. That proves one of the attractions of joining the Fourth Division.

The trip to the coast is made from Fort Stevens in special tourist's cars, to which are attached kitchen and dining coaches. Government cooks and chefs provide the best of menus en route. Men enlisting in this city are first sent to Boston and from there to Fort Stevens where they are shipped out in groups of 200 or 300, each day to Washington.

The roads used by the government in transporting men to Camp Lewis are the Great Northern, the Northern Pacific, the Union Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

This type of house undoubtedly will be erected in the Highlands, and the new triple pump installed therein.

Accident Board Hearings
Three hearings were conducted in the council chamber at city hall today before John H. Cogswell of the Industrial Accident board. The case of Stanislas Zervas, injured while at work for the American Mfg. Co., was first heard. Fisher H. Pearson, appeared for the employee. The other two cases were: Simon Tarplin, sustained injuries while working in the Appleton mill. In each case, Frank A. Lavelle appeared for the insurer.

More Measles Reported
There seemed to be a recrudescence of the local measles epidemic yesterday when 20 new cases were reported to the board of health. This increase did not hold today, however, when only four cases had been reported up until early afternoon. While the epidemic has claimed a few victims among children, in the majority of cases, the attack has been unusually light.

THE NORTHWAY MOTORS

In the list of exhibits at the auto-mobile show mention of the Northway Motors was inadvertently omitted and there is much interest in this particular exhibit, due in some measure, no doubt, to the fact that one of the demonstrators, Charles C. Schloss, is a well-known Lowell man, having been in business in this city for several years. Mr. Schloss has been with the company about one year and when it comes to telling about and boasting the Northway Motors, Charles is right there with the goods. The famous Northway truck is really a feature of the show and Dr. Schloss certainly demonstrates its many good points to good advantage. There are many Northway Motors' stockholders in Lowell, the majority of whom bought from Mr. Schloss. He covers this district for pleasure cars and trucks.

Saco-Lowell Shops Commended for Removing Unsightly Advertising Boards

The park commission feels that the Saco-Lowell shop, and especially Agent William H. Goldsmith, Jr., deserves every commendation for its co-operative action toward a city-beautiful by taking steps to do away with the unsightly advertising boards which heretofore have bordered its property in Dutton street.

The commission states that the work of the Saco-Lowell shop along this line is of the highest order and that it is a credit to the city.

The largest crowd in the history of Shedd Park skated on its smooth surface last Sunday, and all this week the ice has been black with boys and girls and men and women. The ice is present in its very fair condition.

The Fire Department

Fire Commissioner John F. Salm would like money enough this year to completely motorize the Lowell department from end to end, but will be satisfied with an amount sufficient to purchase a new triple-combination pump for the new highlands house.

In speaking of the proposed new house in the Highlands, Commissioner Salmon said that within a very few

HONOR HERO CHAPLAINS

Hearing On Petition for Tablet in Memory of Yankee Division Chaplains

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 21.—A public hearing was held today on the petition of Rep. Roland D. Sawyer of Ware for the placing in the state house of a bronze tablet in memory of the late Rev. Mr. John B. DeValles and the Rev. Walter S. Danker, chaplains of the 26th (Yankee) Division.

Rep. Sawyer told the committee that as a clergyman he was particularly interested in obtaining proper recognition and commemoration of the supreme sacrifice made by his fellow-clergyman.

"From their first landing in France," he said, "they were in the service together. Danker as a regular chaplain, and DeValles as a Knight of Columbus chaplain. When Chaplain Danker was killed in action, Mr. DeValles took his place, and was killed. He was ordered home, but stayed on long with his boys, and finally came home, only to die in a New Bedford hospital.

"As a clergyman, I can sense the tremendous historic importance of the service of these hero chaplains. In all our three hundred years of history, I know of nothing in the religious life of Massachusetts so beautiful, so holy, so inspiring to patriotism and to religious devotion, as the example of these two men.

"Utterly forgetful of themselves, rising above the petty things, these two fine spirits administered on our behalf and in our stead to our boys in the front. Their services are conspicuous and Massachusetts men with propriety be considered forgetful of her debt to them if she does not properly and fittingly commemorate their service.

"When their boys were cold and hungry, these chaplains kept their hearts warm and fed them on the 'bread of life'; when their boys were weak and tired, they never weaned, but gave strength from their own souls—fired by devotion to duty; where the shells burst, and men fell torn and bloodied, they stood calm, heroic living witnesses of the power of that Christian faith which they preached."

Others who paid eloquent tributes to the memory of the departed chaplains and urged the placing of a tablet were Col. Alfred F. Foote, commissioner of public safety; Major Charles C. Stanchfield of the state intelligence department; and Major William Blanchard of the department of the Adjutant-General.

"These chaplains," Col. Foote said, "exemplified the finest type of man, soldier and Christian—modest, courageous, sacrificing, they should not be forgotten by the commonwealth. They never can be forgotten by the men of the Yankee Division whom they served into whose lives they brought sunshine when only clouds were to be seen."

Major Stanchfield declared both men to have been the "salt of the earth," and urged that the tablet be erected without delay. Major Blanchard expressed himself as in accord with all that had been said. There was no opposition.

LOWELL PASTOR GETS CALL TO SEATTLE

A call from the Plymouth Congregational church of Seattle, Wash., was received last night via long distance phone by Rev. Chas. J. Hawkins, D.D., pastor of Lowell's First Congregational church. The action on the part of the Washington congregation, which is the most prominent in the western section of the country, followed a trans-continental journey by a committee, which attended the services conducted by Dr. Hawkins last Sunday and quickly decided that the local pastor would prove a most valuable man in carrying on the extensive religious work of their church.

A remarkable feature of the coast-to-coast telephone call to Dr. Hawkins was the startling distinctness of the connection, which was established by a direct wire from the central exchange in Seattle. As the vote of the western congregation was communicated, the Lowell pastor was able to hear the enthusiastic hand-clapping which followed.

Dr. Hawkins has not yet made public his decision in the matter of going to this new field, but will do so in the near future.

PAID $2000 TO AVOID LABOR TROUBLE

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Albert A. Volk, housewrecked, testified yesterday at the trial of Robert P. Brindell, building trades council president, charged with extortion, that during a legislative committee investigation of the "building trust" last fall, Brindell telephoned him to "pay dumb and say nothing."

Volk declared he had paid Brindell $2000 in order that he might continue work on a big contract in the shopping district. He said he offered Brindell a check for the amount, but it was refused and he paid him in $100 bills.

The first experience he had with Brindell, Volk testified, was during the course of some construction work up town. The men working on the job

DENIES GIRLS IMPORTED AND SOLD AT AUCTION

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 21.—There is no evidence in the office of the United States immigration commissioner here to corroborate charges which he made public last Monday, that Armenian girls were being imported into this country and auctioned off to the highest bidder, as wives, according to a written statement made today by United States Commissioner Moore.

Harry Selvia, a local rancher, is accused of bringing several women into this country under assumed names and the women are under surveillance. Moore has asked for warrants for their arrests for making false statements on entry.

CHEER MAN WHO REFUSED TO PAY NEW TAX

WILLEMSTAD, D. W. I., Jan. 21.—Collection in the local government of an extraordinary income tax, from which natives of Holland who arrived here since 1913, are exempt, is causing much dissatisfaction. Citizens contend that the tax law has been incorrectly interpreted.

The household effects of a physician who refused to pay the tax were offered for sale at auction today by the government. Although the building in which the sale was held was crowded, there were no bids and the articles were not sold. A clerical clerk carried the physician about shoulder high. Merchants, as a token of their approval of the doctor's refusal to pay the tax, closed their places of business during the afternoon.

TO SOLVE FINANCIAL PROBLEMS AT HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 21.—A committee of 12 Harvard university graduates to assist in solving the financial problems of the university at the close of the endowment fund campaign was announced today by John W. Prentiss of New York, president of the Associated Harvard clubs. O. Cook Kimball, former president of the Associated Harvard clubs, is chairman and the vice presidents are Percy S. Straus, New York; Morton D. Hull, Chicago; B. H. Dibley, San Francisco and Landell Thomas of Augusta, Ga.

Charles G. Washburn of Worcester, classicist and biographer of Theodore Roosevelt, was announced as chairman of the committee on memorial to the former president.

The directors of the Harvard Alumni association, announced the appointment of Robert H. Halliwell of Reading, vice chief marshal for commencement day, following the custom of appointing a member of the class celebrating its 25th anniversary.

When he reached the camp, Farrell said that he was absolutely "dog tired," but movie men continued to bother him.

"I smiled for them, smoked cigars for them and did everything they asked to please them, and was all in when they got through with me," he added.

He said he accepted the invitation of a Hudson Bay company man to go to his room and have tea. While in the room, waiting for the man's mother to prepare food, Farrell said the room began filling with men who began questioning him.

"The questioning seemed to drive me wild," he said. "It worried me. I was feeling to be fast losing my sense of reasoning power. I remember one of them telling me about things published about me in the newspapers. I seemed to get all excited. I was shaking all over. When the Hudson Bay man took me to the company's store and from there to the private car, I seemed to be dozy. Dog tired, and all in. I could not sleep when I laid down. I scarcely remember seeing Hinton, and I was going nutty."

At this point Farrell said he did not remember the incident with Lieut. Hinton.

"Kloor told me I had better apologize to Hinton," he said. "And I did so. Lieut. Hinton and I had always been good friends before the incident, and have been since."

In Lieut. Farrell's story of the third day's tramp through the woods, he admitted he felt several times and lagged behind his companions. His story differed at times from that of Hinton and contained no mention of his having a knife or of his companions discussing taking it from him.

After several falls, he said his weakness increased and calling to

WILL NOT Remain Silent, She Says. Lowell Woman Restored to Health By Tonic After Suffering Eight Years

"I don't see how anyone could get the wonderful relief I have and keep silent about it," said Mrs. Rose Gochie, 341 Aiken street, Lowell, in relating her experience with Tonic, recently.

"For about eight years I suffered from stomach trouble so bad that at times even milk would not agree with me. After meals I often had indigestion so bad I couldn't stay up and I had headache for days at a time so bad I could hardly endure it. I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep, and always felt tired and worn out. After while trying to sweep the door I became so weak and dizzy I had to stop and sit down.

"Well, I just seemed to get worse right on and was almost in despair when I got Tonic. But this grand medicine has got me to where I am eating just anything I want without the least pain or distress afterward. I have taken four bottles, and all my troubles are completely gone, and I feel just like in my very best days. I certainly feel thankful for my good health, and Tonic gets all the praise."

Tonic is sold in Lowell by Green's Drug Store, under the personal direction of a special Tonic representative; by Wright Drug Co., Billerica, Mass., and by the leading druggist in every town.—Adv.

LIEUT. FARRELL ADMITS HE WAS "ALL IN"

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Recovering significantly from the effects of his recent balloon trip to the frozen north, Lieut. Stephen A. Farrell, captured yesterday before a naval board of inquiry and testified he had scarcely any remembrance of coming to blows with his comrades, Lieut. Walter Hinton, on their return to civilization.

He admitted that several times he lagged behind his companions, Lieut. Kloor and Lieut. Hinton, but he made no mention of a knife. He did, however, say that at the time of the encounter he was "all in"; and that after the clash he told Kloor he feared he "was going nutty."

Farrell said that his condition was due to lack of sleep. The night before their arrival at Matlaco it was his turn to stand watch over their camp and when he did lay down toward morning he was unable to sleep.

The party was met five or six miles from Matlaco by a party of motion picture photographers. He testified, Kloor and Hinton accepted an invitation to ride into Matlaco on the photographers' sled. Farrell said he stayed with the two Indians who had piloted them from Moose Factory and trudged into Matlaco after the others.

Bothered by Movie Men
When he reached the camp, Farrell said that he was absolutely "dog tired," but movie men continued to bother him.

"I smiled for them, smoked cigars for them and did everything they asked to please them, and was all in when they got through with me," he added.

He said he accepted the invitation of a Hudson Bay company man to go to his room and have tea. While in the room, waiting for the man's mother to prepare food, Farrell said the room began filling with men who began questioning him.

"The questioning seemed to drive me wild," he said. "It worried me. I was feeling to be fast losing my sense of reasoning power. In Lieut. Farrell's story of the third day's tramp through the woods, he admitted he felt several times and lagged behind his companions. His story differed at times from that of Hinton and contained no mention of his having a knife or of his companions discussing taking it from him.

Hinton who preceded him, he told him he could go no farther. He then asked Hinton to make a fire.

"Hinton sort of razzed me to keep on," Farrell said, "saying that we must make time. I replied, 'All right, make a fire and I'll follow your tracks.'"

"I think he said, 'Do you want to make that proposition to Kloor? I was fading fast and fell and at that point I must have fainted dead away.'"

He thought he remembered Kloor picking him up and added:

"I thought I heard him say, 'no body is going to follow tracks.'"

Describing the events of the third day, he testified that he lagged behind the others. His stomach troubled him and he frequently stopped to get water. He said Lieut. Kloor warned against taking too much water but that he felt obliged to quench his thirst at intervals.

ANNUAL MEETING OF MINISTRY-AT-LARGE

The reading of the annual report of Rev. George C. Wright, pastor of the Ministry-at-Large, and the election of the officers for the ensuing year were the features of the annual meeting, which was held last evening in the Free church in Middlesex street. The report of the treasurer, J. Harry

Boardman, showing that the receipts for the year were $5403.78, while the expenditures amounted to $7466.32, was also read. The meeting appointed the following committee to confer with the heads of the Goodwill Industries: Henry H. Harris, Arthur L. Hiser and Rev. Leslie C. Beckes.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Dudley L. Page; vice presidents, Mrs. M. R. Jefferson and Rev. J. M. Craig; treasurer, J. E. Rev. L. C. Beckes; First Presby-

Harry Boardman; secretary, Henry H. Harris; directors-at-large, Mrs. M. R. Jefferson, Harvey B. Greene, Mrs. Theodore E. Parker, Herbert D. Burrage, C. H. Hobson, Mrs. C. H. Hobson, A. Leon Hurd, Edward Babcock, and Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, D.D.; directors from churches, St. John's Episcopal, Mrs. O. O. Greenwood; Grace Universalist, Rev. E. C. Downey; All Souls, Rev. Arthur C. McHaffert; Central M. E., Rev. L. C. Beckes; First Presbyterian, Miss Emily Skilton; Highland Congregational, Miss L. Adelaide Wallingford; First Universalist, Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D.; St. Anne's Episcopal, Rev. Appleton Grannis; Eliot Union, Louis A. Olney; Pawtucket Congregational, Mrs. W. T. S. Bartlett; Palge Street Baptist, Rev. J. C. Hayes; First Primitive Methodist, Rev. Nathaniel W. Matthews; First Congregational, Mrs. C. T. Upton; Fifth Street Baptist, Roscoe B. Thomas.

The annual report submitted by Rev. Mr. Wright follows in full:

"During war-time prosperity, when the least skilled worker easily found employment at good wages, the Ministry-at-Large had fewer applicants for assistance in the chartered service of benevolence, education and religion that it has rendered the poorer people of Lowell for more than 30 years. But return to peace conditions brought slackening of industries and unemployment. The pinch of unemployment and want began to be felt acutely in mid-autumn, and the number of applicants for relief then began to tax our resources to their limit, until now we are receiving more applications for relief than we can grant. It is doubtful if more money can now be raised for home relief, as the appeals from Europe have been numerous and urgent and the usual gifts to charitable causes have been 'bied white'. Besides many who inherited fairly good fortunes and who regard helping the unfortunate as a family tradition and debt handed to them by respect and may have been reduced in fortune and are now unable to do as much as formerly. The new-rich are not yet accustomed to the feeling and way of those long accustomed to ample means."

"During the year 1920 the Ministry-at-Large received 914 applications for supplies or counsel—representing 250 families and 1335 individuals. The supplies were in groceries, fuel, shoes, clothing, milk, meals, medicine, money, and railroad fares. Doctors, hospital service and employment were obtained. The money cost was $2071.81. We have been enabled to function to the full limit of our resources by reason of small administrative expense and the volunteer service of devoted officials and friends."

"Now just a word about industrial prospects and human conditions. While for the next three or four months we shall be called upon for aid to greater extent than our resources can grant, yet the outlook is encouraging to poor persons. The mild weather and absence of much sickness is in favor, business conditions slowly but surely improving, and unemployment slightly decreasing. Wages are lowering, but so is cost of living. The national prohibition law, though, as yet only partially effective, is salutary. The 'drug habit' is now supplanted by the 'drug habit'—such great number of the larger cities have inordinate facilities for the treatment. The costliness of the drugs which the drug addict uses is supposed by many to account for the thieving now too frequent. But means will be found to correct this evil, to which the unfortunate are supposed to be particularly exposed."

"The main cause of human backwardness and sin, as I have had the opportunity to observe it here for 32 years, is the cause that affects all human kind in varying degrees—the cause of feeble-mindedness. It evokes the pity and sympathy like that of a father for his weak and sinning child. Each generation has had to deal with it, and it is decreasing through the efforts of the doctor, the teacher, the minister—the doctor correcting evils of bodily defects and unhealthy living conditions, the teacher quickening sluggish brain to power of reason and faculty, the minister inspiring moral purpose and strength of will to righteousness. These three working in unity are powers to bestow health, hope and happiness upon mankind."

Tradition says that the Civil war was waged in the old St. Charles hotel in Washington.

The town of Koenigsberg, Germany, in 1855 celebrated hogma sausage as its national dish by making one foot long.

MAY HOLD TRIENNIAL CONVENTION HERE

It is probable that the triennial convention of the Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique will be held in this city next October. This matter will be definitely settled at a meeting of the officers of the various local councils of the union, which will be held this evening in C.M.A.C. hall in Pawtucket street. The meeting is being called under the auspices of Carillon council and will be presided over by L. J. Cornulier, and the officers of the following councils will be in attendance: Carillon, J. N. Jacques, Laval, St. Therese and Notre Dame de Lourdes.

If the Lowell men decide to have the convention in Lowell it will mean that some time in October about 700 people from out of town will spend three days in Lowell for the delegates from the various councils of the union, which are located in all parts of the country, number about 200 and in addition it is always customary for about 200 other members of the union to attend the meeting.

The last convention of the union was held in Springfield, deliberations taking place in the auditorium, and at that time there were over 500 visitors in the city, among whom were nearly 200 clergymen. The only drawback for the holding of the convention in this city is lack of hotel accommodations and that is the matter that will be discussed at this evening's meeting. It is understood that local hotel keepers have been interviewed and if the officers of the local council can see their way clear to provide lodging for the numerous delegates, during their stay in Lowell, it is very probable that the general officers of the union will be requested to stage the next convention in this city.

A short time ago F. X. Gathneau, of Southbridge, honorary president general of the union, came to Lowell and conferred with some of the officers of the local councils on the advisability of holding the next congress in this city. Mr. Gathneau came here, as the representative of the general board of officers, which is headed by President General Henri T. Ledoux, postmaster of Nashua, N. H., and informed the Lowell men that Lowell was favorable to all as the next convention place providing hotel accommodations could be secured for the numerous delegates. Conventions of the union are never held in this city and if it is possible to hold the convention here next October it will mean a lot to the Lowell councils and the city in general.

ARREST BOYS WHO TRIED TO SELL PEARLS

Two boys who claim that they are Lawrence residents, are being held on suspicion by the local police in consequence of their attempt to dispose of three large pearls at a Lowell jewelry store. The Lawrence police authorities, when questioned on the telephone, stated that no loss of pearls had been reported to them. The boys declare that the pearls were presented to them by a friend who is now in California.

Harding on Way to the South

Lack of exercise have told materially on his physical condition. Not once since his return from Panama early in December has he been able to visit his favorite playground, the golf links. Walking has been his only recreation and he has found little time even for that.

A fishing trip down the eastern shore of Florida is to occupy the first two weeks of his stay in the south. It is his hope to be completely isolated from observation during the period, though he may venture forth once or twice to play golf. Early in February he will take up his residence at a St. Augustine hotel, where he will remain until just before his inauguration.

PARK BOARD PLANS FOR 1921

Program Includes Pawtucket
Riverbank Extension,
Washington Park
And Highlands Playgrounds
and First Street Oval—
Supt. Submits Report

The park commission met last evening and discussed its plans for the year. After considerable discussion it was decided that four important projects should be undertaken. Aside from these four projects the park department will need about $50,000 to maintain what it already has and to do the work.

The four main projects decided upon by the commission last night are the first street oval, Washington Park playground, the Pawtucketville riverbank extension work and the acquisition of four acres of land in the Highlands to give that section of the city a permanent playground. The commission will ask the mayor for a conference relative to the four projects in question and to discuss the order in which they should be taken up.

Frank A. Smith petitioned for the removal of one tree at 68 Marlborough street. This was voted, provided the removal be at Mr. Smith's expense. The petition of John H. Barry for the removal of a large elm tree at 15 Lombard street was referred to the tree committee for further facts. Fred Parent of 21 Boylston street petitioned for the removal of an oak tree and this, too, was referred to the tree committee. Mrs. Ivy M. Nickles, 35 Hampstead street, asked that two poplar trees in front of her house be removed. This was favored but it was left to Superintendent Kernan to handle in some way that might satisfy the petitioner and at the same time preserve shade in the street.

Superintendent's Report

The annual report of the superintendent of parks was presented at the meeting. The report covers the year's activities, the majority of which were mentioned in the press at the time of their occurrence. It makes mention of the comfort station on the South common, the Pawtucketville riverbank extension plans, new public bath houses, fourth of July celebration, Fort Hill park tennis courts, municipal movies, municipal Christmas tree, playgrounds, etc.

Referring to playgrounds, and the subject is treated at considerable length, Supt. Kernan's report reads, in part, as follows:

One of the most effective means of stimulating interest in the activities of the playgrounds has been the awarding of what is known as the athletic badge test which was tried out for the first time last summer. Small bronze buttons bearing three different designs marking three different degrees in excellence for performing three different standards of tests in athletics were awarded.

The first test was in recognition of a child's ability to perform certain prescribed athletic feats in a certain time or distance, a standard being set in better time or distance, a standard being set, they were entitled to a bronze button of the second class; and if they could do still better with still a higher standard being set, they were awarded a button of the third class. Although the buttons were inexpensive, they were hard to secure and every child who was fortunate enough to win one was extremely proud of his accomplishment, and most of those who failed to qualify worked diligently preparing for the next opportunity to secure one. The different tests were held throughout the summer and the buttons were formally presented at the closing day exercises by the chairman of the board.

Our five playgrounds opened on July 1, and continued for a period of eight weeks. It is a pleasure to report that the school department co-operated with us during the summer, furnishing two instructors, one in industrial work for the boys, and one in cooking for the girls at the Greenhatch school in West Centralville. Excellent results were obtained and commendation is due them for their work. It is confidently hoped that this phase of our work may be extended to other school buildings adjacent to our grounds during this coming summer, so that the children of all sections of the city may have an equal opportunity.

We were extremely fortunate the past summer in having an expert in organized play assigned to us by the Community Service Bureau free of cost, in the person of Miss Louise S. French. The supervisors were called together each week and discussed problems which arose on their respective grounds, and then they were given a talk by Miss French on modern methods of play. During the week Miss French visited the different grounds and aided and assisted the supervisors wherever she could.

The usual amount of industrial work in the line of sewing was again taken up during the season and filled a gap for those children who didn't care about play. They busied themselves by making many useful articles for their home, and in many cases made

I have 8 ready-to-wear Overcoats on hand, sizes 36, 38, 40. You can buy one at your own price.

The tailoring event of the year—the opportunity my customers so eagerly wait for. I have only two sales each year and they are sales worthy of the name. Don't confuse this with so-called sales of marked-up merchandise, for I have reserved NOTHING. Every suit and overcoat pattern in my stock is reduced 20 per cent. below pre-war prices, with which I astounded Lowell men last Fall, before other merchants thought of reducing prices.

I have offered my customers some mighty attractive sales in the past, but never have I cut my prices as in this event. Do not look for further reductions throughout the progress of this sale—there will be none. I am doing the absolute utmost in the interest of my patrons—I will not attempt the impossible.

As matters stand, I believe I am offering you

THE BIGGEST MEASURE OF VALUES OBTAINABLE IN AMERICA

It's no secret that pre-war deflation hits the clothing business hard. Many merchants were caught with large stocks of woolsens on hand, which they were forced to order months ago at high prices.

I was not, but I have a large force of tailors in my shop whom I must keep working. It is a moral duty now as never before to keep every employe at work—not one of mine will be laid off, therefore I am making prices that will force buying in this, my JANUARY SALE.

MITCHELL,

The Tailor

ing apparel for themselves when and opened. We are indebted to the agents of the city who responded promptly by donations of cloth to us on this work.

On Saturday afternoon a group of our ladies from the Community Service conducted a series of parties on the grounds, for the playground children of our several different grounds were given an opportunity to see a real up-to-date farm as well as to roam about to enjoy nature in its loveliness. They also took part in games, dances and community singing with a little spread in the line of ice cream and cake. The Community Service has our sincere thanks for their assistance, which proved very helpful to our playground work, and which was enjoyed immensely by the children themselves.

A new departure was undertaken this past summer in comparison with the chamber of commerce, in operating street playgrounds during the evening until dusk. It was financed by the chamber of commerce, and as problems are ever present, I gave my time that the children might have every pleasure in this new field of recreation and at the same time be properly supervised. At first about six different congested streets were selected, but because of protest filed against some, only two were used, namely, Charles and Howard streets were chosen on because the regular day playgrounds were occupied by grownups, who had to be out of the way in the middle of the night. It was thought best to keep the children's time occupied by wholesome, organized play, thereby keeping them out of mischief, the new daylight for having given us an added hour of light each day. Our community thought so well of it that we had many inquiries as to our method and results. They certainly proved a success, even beyond our expectation.

Our closing exercises of the playground were held on the South common on September 2 with Mrs. Julian H. Keyes in charge. The co-operation between the different grounds stood out in evidence, as the program was excellent. The children worked as one group and their difficult dances gave pleasing results. In addition to their dancing a simple bit of pageantry was given which met the hearty approval of all. The boys' program of sports which followed, stirred the friends of the competitors to a high pitch of enthusiasm. The final assembling of the various playgrounds on the field led to the presentation of the badges by Chairman Weed of the board of park

Street Trees

Our tree work the past year covered trimming trees, which means the removal of all dead and unsightly wood, all low overhanging branches which interfered with the proper use of streets and sidewalks, and those branches which were interfered with by the wires of the public service corporations. It covered the removal of dead, dangerous, and otherwise undesirable trees. Many trees of the latter class were removed where assurance was given that more desirable species would be planted. It also covered the planting of trees.

One or two improvement associations and still a larger number of citizens asked for advice and suggestions regarding the proper care and maintenance of the trees and shrubs growing in their particular locality, which was always willingly and cheerfully given.

Many times during the year applicants desirous of having tree work done in front of their residences would become a little restless because our tree gang would not show up the next day on the work asked for. Our policy has been to do the work in the order in which requests have been filed in our office, with the exception of an emergency job. We might, however, have three or four calls on one street, when there would be done the same day. There were weeks when we had as many as 20 requests, some of which would take a good part of a day to complete. Hence, one may see how progress at times seemed slow.

During the year we have trimmed over 200 trees and cut down 112. To offset this we have planted 165 young Norway maples in different sections of the city that we may not be on the

DISCHARGED VETERANS
FIGHT REMOVAL

LAWRENCE, Jan. 21.—Whether or not the so-called veterans' preference act really protects from dismissal veterans in the employ of a municipality, the supreme judicial court will undoubtedly be called upon to decide shortly as a result of the discharge yesterday by Alderman and commissioner of public property and parks Michael P. Scanlon of 14 veterans employed in that department.

The discharged veterans were originally employed by ex-Alderman John A. Flanagan, who last month was defeated for re-election by Alderman Scanlon. Immediately after his inauguration the latter discharged many of the department's old employees and notified the 14 ex-servicemen that he intended to get rid of them also.

It is understood that the department would be closed down until such time as he made some of his ground. They employed Attorney Kane and, acting under his advice, have been reporting daily, to be informed each day, however, that there was no work for them.

Meanwhile Alderman Scanlon requested from City Solicitor Daniel J. Murphy an interpretation of the veterans' preference act, and it was as a result of the handling down of an opinion by the solicitor that the Alderman made yesterday's move.

In the opinion Solicitor Murphy informed Alderman Scanlon that "I can find no authority that seems to me conclusively decisive of this legal question upon the facts as they exist in the city of Lawrence. In my judgment, the issue is not free from doubt, and can be settled finally only by a decision of the supreme judicial court determining what was the intent of the legislature as expressed by these statutes."

"If in your judgment the best interests of the city in the operation of the department of public property warrant a judicial determination of this matter, then it is for you to say as the director of this department whether such judicial determination shall come about by discharging the men claiming the preference or by discharging a single claimant and making of his discharge a test case."

No stomach dosing. Hyomei is made chiefly of oil of eucalyptus taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with other excellent antiseptics.

In inland Australia, the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs do not thrive, and in consequence coughs, colds, catarrh and other nose and throat afflictions are practically unknown.

Breathe Hyomei and get the same pleasant germ-killing effect as you would get in the eucalyptus forests.

BUYS JAIL FOR $30
No Use for Place Since Prohibition
WAUSAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 21.—Joseph Jelen yesterday bought the Wausauke jail for $30 and will use it for a woodshed.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA
Use Soothing Musterole
When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back of joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 35c and 65c jars; hospital size $3.

Theatres' Own Press Agents—
OPERA HOUSE
"At 9.45" the week's production by the Lowell Players at the Opera House, is one of the most entertaining mystery melodramas ever presented here. You will say so when you see it. It will be especially interesting to attend and try to solve the mystery as it is unfolded by the play itself. Only four more performances. Try and attend. It's worthy of liberal patronage.

THE STRAND
One of the strangest companionships known in popular literature forms the basis for the story of "The Strand," a Tom Mix Western which is being shown at The Strand. A remarkable trio, bound together by primitive instincts, consist of a man, horse, and dog. It's an interesting story and the star shows to his best advantage. The other feature on the bill is Eva Novak in "Wanted at Headquarters" and the remainder of the bill includes a good comedy and weekly, as well as a good musical number by Miss Edna Hobbs.

RUBY NORTON, THE CLASSIC ENTERTAINER Lowell has known this season. It is acclaimed by all who see her at the Strand at a date in the near future. The coming of "Madame X" to the Strand at a date in the near future gives every promise of establishing a new record attendance figure. This wonder picture has been secured at the expense but, despite this fact, the Strand management will charge the regular price of 15c admission. You certainly have seen the picture. New set in picture story and enjoy it all the more.
A grand old picture of a mammoth's task found in a frozen cave is believed to be the most interesting attempt of men now extant.

Spanish Cabinet Not to Resign

MADRID, Jan. 21.—Premier Dato secured only 154 votes in the chamber of deputies last night when he called for a vote of confidence. The remainder of the members of the chamber left the house without voting. The premier declared himself satisfied and indicated his cabinet would not resign. Many deputies criticized the action of the government in connection with the strike of civil officials of the ministry of the treasury. This strike has threatened to spread to other departments and has caused much concern throughout Spain. Lorenzo Pascual, minister of finance is reported to have tendered his resignation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—A department of labor table published today said that if the maximum wage cut of 22½ per cent. so far reported from any cotton mill were applied generally in the industry to 1920 rates, it would leave an hourly wage 2.5 times as high as prevailed in 1913 or 1.14 times as high as in 1918.

The 1920 figures the table showed, were 3.5 times as high as in 1907; 3.2 times as high as in 1913 and 1.8 times as high as in 1918. At the same time the average full time work for male frame spinners in 1920 was 50.7 hours as compared to 59.4 in 1907 and 54.9 in 1913 and for female frame spinners 51.8 hours in 1920 as compared to 61.0 in 1907 and 57.3 in 1913.

Y.M.C.A. ACTIVITIES

Another rehearsal for those to take part in the Y.M.C.A. minstrel show was held last evening in the institute rooms in Stackpole street. General dancing was enjoyed after the practice. The next meeting for rehearsal, it was announced, will be held Sunday afternoon. The basketball team of the Y.M.C.A. has entered the City league, games of which will soon be started and be played in Legion hall in Dutton street.

ALLEGED DESERTERS

Mayor Perry D. Thompson has been advised that the following Lowell boys have been declared deserters from the United States naval service: John Roy, 64 Austin street, U. S. Coast Guard, New London, Conn.; Frank P. Razul, 65 Hudson street, U.S.S. Utah.

At the beginning of the seventeenth century books published in England were placed under strict censorship.

LISBON SOCIAL CLUB

Ladies' night was observed last evening by the Lisbon Social club in quarters in Central street. The affair was well attended and proved very enjoyable. General dancing was enjoyed from 8 o'clock until midnight. The committee in charge was Manuel Silva, Joseph Correia, Manuel Correia, Anthony Braga, Manuel Avila.

losing end of the ledger at the end of the year. For the most part, streets were selected that were practically devoid of trees. A few were planted on the South common and at Fort Hill park. Tree guards were placed about those we thought would have the hardest time to thrive, because of the molestation of mischievous persons.

Recommendations

I respectfully recommend that the wings of the new public bath house on the boulevard be extended 20 feet on each end and additional locker accommodations built therein.

That the new parkway started last year at the bridgehead in Pawtucketville along the river bank be continued insofar as funds will permit.

That an athletic field in the Highlands be purchased at once, as it may be obtained more reasonably now than later. Only a few desirable sites remain and if building continues in the next few years as it has in the past, no land will be available.

That Washington park be purchased as it will accommodate people in the lower Highlands and alleviate a very congested section.

That the policy of planting a few hundred street trees be continued each year so that our numbers will not be impaired in years to come.

That an iron fence of an ornamental design be installed around the city hall grounds, in place of the wire one now in use. A fence of some kind is an absolute necessity, as without one we would have neither grass nor shrubs. I feel that the style of fence should be in keeping with the building and grounds.

That the state authorities be urged to make some definite move toward the completion of the first street boulevard, as not until then can anything tangible be done on the proposed oval which we confidently hope will serve as a stadium for all athletic games, almost in the heart of the city.

That an open air dance hall be built at the South common, operated under the direction of the board, following somewhat the lines of one at Hartford, Conn. This one is supervised by three matrons, who see to it that order and decorum are maintained at all times. It closes at 10.30 p. m. and for 10 cents one couple is permitted to dance the entire evening. The issue might just as well be met whether one favors dancing or not, as at least 75 per cent of the young people today want to dance. Accepting this as a fact, unquestionably it is preferred that they go to a place properly handled and where commercializing is done away with by those in charge.

So many improvements might be proposed to add beauty and utility to our existing parks, as many projects of park and driveway acquisition and improvement might be outlined, that it is rather difficult to refrain from recommending many things that are impossible to accomplish on account of existing financial conditions. However, recognizing these conditions, only those changes and improvements are recommended in the foregoing paragraphs which are really necessary, and that can be accomplished, by a loan order of approximately $50,000 and by which our annual appropriation for maintenance will not be impaired.

In conclusion, permit me to thank the board for its support given during the year, employees of the department for their faithfulness, the city officials, the playground teachers, the newspapers, and the public in general for the many kind favors rendered and the spirit of co-operation that has been shown the past year.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT
Ella Lebowitz, whose picture appears in an advertisement in another part of the paper, is the contralto soloist for "Elijah" to be sung by the Choral Society on Jan. 23. While her name is doubtless familiar to the owners of Brunswick phonographs, for which she makes records exclusively, to the local musical public at large she is a newcomer whose appearance is awaited with much interest, so favorable have been the reports of her work.
At present Miss Lebowitz is the contralto soloist at the First Presbyterian church in Fifth Avenue, New York, and by sheer force of a beautiful, clear, skillful production, whose candor and forceful interpretation is fast pushing her way into the front rank of American contraltos.
It is indicative of the care which the Choral Society uses in engaging its soloists that it sent to New York for an artist of the standing of Miss Lebowitz to sing the comparatively small contralto role in "Elijah."
Reserved seats for this concert may be obtained at Steinert's.

VAUDEVILLE AND DANCE
A vaudeville entertainment and dancing party was held in Colonial Hall last evening, the affair being conducted under the auspices of the Young Women's Hebrew Association. There were about 500 people present and a thoroughly enjoyed the program. Those who took part in the entertainment were Tibbie Rosenthal, Mary Collet, Emily Harris, Rose L. Brown, Rose L. Brownstein, Miriam D. Cantor, and Gardner S. Allen, Kaplan, Fanny Kaplan, Milla J. Sandler, Rosalie Carl, Emma Carg and Bertha Draverman. The musical program was under the supervision of Mrs. Louis Carg and Mrs. Harnet Bernstein served as a compaignist.

BOSTON COLLEGE CONCERT AND DANCE

HILDA BUSWELL
In Dance of Spring

HELEN CROSS, PAULA MORRIS
In Minuet

Many unique and distinctive features will make the pop concert and dance under the auspices of the Boston College club of Lowell in Association hall, Monday evening, Jan. 21, one of the most attractive parties of the younger set this season.

Over one hundred tables will accommodate some five hundred guests. These will be arranged about the hall in the form of a large square and will be decorated in a manner to harmonize with the general effect of the shade to be used in the entire scheme of beautifying the interior. The balconies will be festooned with southern smiles and hundreds of pink carnations will be used to make the scene one of exquisite beauty. The concert will consist of two selections by the Boston Symphony players, who will also accompany the diversions to be given under the direction of Madame Paporello, prima ballerina of La Scala, Milan and ballet mistress of the Boston Opera company. The work of the ballet will be in solos, groups and the finale will be the always bewitching "Blue Danube waltz" in ensemble by the entire company of sixteen. General dancing open to all ticket-holders on the floor and in the balcony will follow the diversions.

Tickets on sale at Greens Drug store, Merrimack Square, and Brown's drug store, Broadway and Willis streets.

BANK ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Lowell Morris Plan company which was held yesterday the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Robert F. Marten; vice-presidents, George Stevens and Harry

Dunlap; treasurer and clerk, John H. Murphy; executive committee, the officers with Edward B. Garvey and Albert D. Milliken; directors, besides the above named, J. Harry Emeryman, Austin K. Chadwick, Harold L. Chaffoux, Fred C. Church, Frank D. Dun-

WOOD YARD

NEW BEDFORD, Jan. 21.—The prisoners of the poor yesterday voted to open a wood yard where aliens who are now receiving aid from the city will be required to work for their allowance from the poor department. The wood yard will be opened at the poor farm, where about 250 cords of wood purchased last summer are waiting to be sawed and split. It is believed that this new scheme will discourage some of the undeserving applicants who have been imposing upon the department.

"At first," said Mr. Cohen, chairman of the board, "we will employ only aliens, because these men are barred from the civil service list and have no chance to enter city employment as laborers. Payment will be in the form of grocery orders issued by this department. The plan will be to let the applicants work out the amount of their grocery orders, allowing them $3 a day for their services. The men who receive a $6 order will have to work two days. The men who get a $9 order will have to work three days. Any who refuse to work will be denied further aid from this department. We believe that a certain number will prefer not to work."

MISS JOYCE HOSTESS

High School Instructor in Musician Tenders Banquet to Cast of Play Recently Presented at Opera House

Miss Mary Joyce, education instructor of the high school, tendered a banquet in Page's restaurant last evening to all those who contributed towards the success of the recent school play, "Happiness," in the Opera House. A special table was prepared in the dining hall and all were seated by some special arrangement and pleasing device according to the parts which the students took in the play. Novel favors were distributed to all present.

Miss Joyce acted as toastmistress and chaperon of the party. Her introductory remarks were brief, but to the point. She expressed her appreciation of the efforts displayed by the players during rehearsal and thanked all who in any way contributed to the success of the play.

Those present were Miss Mary Joyce, Miss Anna Lee Manning, Miss J. Keyes and the following high school players, Miss Rose Neyman, James Howe, Miss Mary Casey, Miss Helen Beardon, Miss Helen Sawyer, Raymond Donovan, Miss Helen Chadwick, Miss Bertha Upton, Arthur McQuaid, Miss Ruth Pollard, Everett Blay and Gregory McAdams.

All of those present at the banquet repaired to the Opera House where they were assigned reserved seats to witness this week's production by the Lowell players.

Maj. Gen. Sir Edward Strickland, commander of crown troops in Ireland, stated yesterday at Cork that martial law was producing beneficial results and that arms were being surrendered by or captured from Sinn Feiners. He admitted, however, that only a handful of Irish republican leaders had given themselves up to the British government, and added that his men were most seriously handicapped by the activities of women who were carrying arms to fugitive Sinn Feiners.

Break Up Sinn Fein Army

CORK, Jan. 21 (By the Associated Press).—In the first formal interview given to the press since he came to Ireland, Maj. Gen. Strickland, in command of the troops, told the Associated Press yesterday that martial law was proving a success.

He discussed the reprisals and his letter to the acting lord mayor explaining that he expected aid from the citizens in the shape of a vigilance committee of some kind to supply information to the military. He did not allude to his report on the burning of Cork.

Among the interesting statements made by Gen. Strickland was one that women carried weapons concealed in their skirts to the astonishing effect. He declared he did not expect immediate results from martial law, but even before it was imposed the murder gang was finding it impossible to live at home, and had begun to form flying columns in the Mallow district and parts of Tipperary and Kilkenny.

"The first result of martial law was to make these columns more active," he said. "The definite thing we are accomplishing is the breaking of the organization of the republican army. Until martial law was declared that organization was remarkably efficient; its formations were almost as well organized as those of the British army.

"It might be taken as too optimistic to say that the present operations of the republican army are its dying kick, but I believe that to be a fact. How long they can keep going is a matter of conjecture. But it is only a question of time."

In reply to a question as to what results had been obtained up to the present by the proclamations demanding the surrender of arms, Gen. Strickland admitted it probably was true that the number of arms personally surrendered could be counted on the fingers of one hand, but added:

"In one way or another arms are coming in."

Gen. Strickland spoke bitterly of the part he alleged women were taking as arms bearers.

"The military are not making war on women or interfering with them in any way," he said, "so the difficulty of getting the arms in the possession of the women may be imagined."

Concerning the suggestion that the people of Cork form a vigilance committee, the general remarked: "Sixteen months ago, when I first came to Ireland, County Clare was a hotbed of republican activity."

Recognizes British Board

DUBLIN, Jan. 21.—The Westmeath county council at a meeting at Mullingar yesterday decided to recognize the local government board.

Curfew in Cork

CORK, Jan. 21.—A proclamation was issued by the military authorities yesterday announcing that the curfew on Saturday and Sunday in Cork would begin thereafter at 8 o'clock in the afternoon.

A majority of the subscribers and other disorders here have a curfew Saturday night, including the present big fire.

Blow Up Houses

CORK, Jan. 21.—In the blowing up

of two houses of Sinn Feiners Saturday a large military force stood guard as the work progressed.

The military force arrived on the scene at 11 o'clock and drew a cordon around several blocks and no one was permitted to enter or leave the area.

Dwyer's wholesale drapery, the largest in Southern Ireland, was systematically searched, the raid being expected to last several hours.

The work of blowing up the designated houses was gone about carefully in order to prevent damage to adjoining property.

The houses selected for reprisal are said to have been occupied by well known Sinn Fein sympathizers, who were given a warning to clear out. They were permitted to remove their furniture, and then military engineers prepared for the demolition of the buildings. Meanwhile officers with drawn revolvers ordered the large crowd that had gathered to disperse, saying that otherwise it would be fired on.

A 11:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon ten loud explosions followed at intervals of several minutes, causing consternation throughout the city. Up to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, however, no fires had broken out and no visible damage had been done to houses outside the zone surrounded by the military.

The raid continued until 5 o'clock in the evening, when the troops were withdrawn. It was then found that two three-story houses had been demolished, only the walls remaining standing, and that a provision shop adjacent had almost been wrecked by the force of the explosions. Scores of windows in other buildings were shattered.

In September, 1919, he was appointed minister of public works.

He was born in St. John's, Ont., and was graduated from Wesley college, Winnipeg; Victoria university and Alberta university. He went west in 1875 and held several offices in the government of the old northwest territory.

AMERICAN HELD AS SPY BY BOLSHEVIKI RELEASED

BALTIMORE, Jan. 21.—Mrs. Mary E. Harrison of Baltimore, a newspaper correspondent, imprisoned as a spy by the Bolsheviks at Moscow, has been released, according to a letter received yesterday by Dr. Hugh H. Young from the secretary of Lord Beaverbrook, owner of the Daily Express of London.

Assurances that she had been released were sent Lord Beaverbrook by M. Krassin, former Bolshevik minister of trade to England, who has returned to Russia.

Mrs. Harrison entered Russia about 11 months ago. Soon after reaching Moscow she was imprisoned for a while, but was released and for a time was reported as being in high favor with the Bolsheviks.

Her efforts to leave the country, however, were frustrated and she was again arrested on Oct. 21 and imprisoned on a charge of having tried to bribe her way out of Russia. Later an official declaration charged her with being a spy for the American state department. This was denied by Washington.

TEN THIEVES ACTIVE

represented at the proposed conference," he said.

"Would not general disarmament open the way to Bolshevism throughout Europe?" asked Representative Britton (Republican, Illinois).

"I think France might feel that way," said the witness. "The keeping of Germany in a state of chaos over reparations is opening the way to Bolshevism more than any other factor right now, in my opinion. The present condition of Germany makes Bolshevism a menace."

Mr. White said it would not be advisable to issue the call for the proposed conference until after March 1 because a call by President Wilson might not be treated seriously as he is a retiring president."

"The general impression I got abroad was that all nations desire to reduce their military establishments," Mr. White continued, adding that he saw no objection to a "naval holiday"

while disarmament was being discussed.

"I should like to see the United States equal to any nation in sea-power when the reduction started," Mr. White said, "but questions might be raised at the conference that would show the right of some nation to a larger navy than the others. Great Britain, for instance, I should think the question of relative size would be for the conference to decide."

The former peace commissioner said the expression "open covenants, openly arrived at" was a beautiful theory, but was impracticable because some negotiations between nations must be secret. He added that he had always been inclined to the theory that "war knows no law" and for that reason had never been able to place his faith in the Hague conferences.

Gen. Pershing's view on disarmament will be sought by the committee next Tuesday.

It is a serious offense to ride a bicycle anywhere near the city of Constantinople.

Flays Secret Treaties on Trade Rights

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Secret treaties on trade rights were denounced as underlying causes of war today by Alexander Legge, general manager of the International Harvester Co., speaking before the convention of the National Merchant Marine association. "We hear a good deal about leagues, and world associations by which world peace may be established," he said. "None will be effective unless it is founded upon elimination of discriminatory trade practices. It is the underlying cause of international disagreements and is becoming more and more the cause of conflict between nations."

One of the ear wagons on a road team owned by Frank Tull of Fortitude broke down in public street south of the bridge this afternoon and for some time causing ear traffic was held up on the public tracks. The wagon was full of oil wood when the accident occurred and a good portion of it was spilled in the road. A number of men lifted the wagon and held it long enough to allow another wagon to be slipped on.
